USD Veterans Club to honor fallen soldiers

The USD Veterans Club will be honoring the fallen veterans from Iraq and Afghanistan.

Starting at 1 p.m. on Sunday, April 10 on the grass North of Old Main on the campus of the University of South Dakota, the club will start setting up its annual flag display to honor each member of the U.S. military who has died while serving the U.S. in Iraq and Afghanistan.

This display will remain standing for one week and will be watched over 24 hours a day by a sentry. This year, club members will be putting up more than 5,900 flags, each one representing one of the dead.

At 6 p.m. each day of next week, the club will honor the fallen veterans with a small ceremony where a few words will be said, and if a person or group would like to lay a wreath or flowers, it can be done at that time. Also at this time the club will be adding additional flags for any war fatalities experienced during the week.

The club will conclude each evening ceremony with a changing of the guard as the night sentry takes his watch, and Taps is played. The USD Veterans Club will also be honoring three university alumni who have sacrificed their lives during the conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Vermillion PD receives award

The Vermillion Police Department received its second recognition award from the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. (CALEA) at the commission's recent conference in Bethesda, MD. Vermillion is one of two South Dakota agencies that meet the CALEA standards. The Rapid City Police Department is a CALEA-accredited agency.

The CALEA Recognition Program is designed to meet the needs of smaller law enforcement agencies. To qualify, an agency must meet 112 standards from the Standards for Law Enforcement agencies accreditation manual. The standards address life, health and safety issues, critical legal issues and conditions that reduce risk and high liability exposure. Recognition provides objective evidence of an agency's commitment to improve resource management and service delivery.

In December 2010, a CALEA assessor spent four days with the Vermillion Police Department inspecting policies and procedures, interviewing staff and generally reviewing the operations of the department to ensure compliance will all the standards. A comprehensive written report was filed with CALEA. Last week Interim Chief of Police Chad Passick, City Manager John Prescott and Vermillion Police Department CALEA Program Manager Betty Mozak attended a hearing before CALEA commissioners who voted unanimously to present the Vermillion Police Department with CALEA's recognition award.

Over 80 years of staff experience, caring, concerned and there for your needs.

When it matters most, trust HyVee Pharmacy.
