Tanager tennis opens season with split of two matches

By Parker Knox
Sportswriter

Vermillion's tennis Tanagers opened their 2012 season with a split of two matches in a triangular at Yankton Saturday, playing in midsummer-like 80-degree conditions.

The Tanagers, coached this spring by Betsy Hughes, defeated Sioux City North, 6-3, and lost to Yankton, 7-2, to gain their split.

Singles players James May, Nathan Samudzi, Mark Helenurm and Jacob Ford and the doubles teams of Helenurm/Will Card and Samudzi/Ford all scored victories in the win over North. Vermillion's points in the Yankton dual were posted by Samudzi in singles and the Samudzi/Ford doubles team.

Next week the Tanagers play at Brandon Valley in a 4 p.m. match Tuesday.

Tanager baseball collars Watchdogs

By Parker Knox
Sportswriter

Beresford teams have caused Vermillion plenty of grief over the past two summers in both high school and Legion baseball. But for this new season, at least for now, Vermillion is one up on its rivals to the northeast.

The Tanager offense pounced on the Watchdogs early Saturday night, and the pitching totally shut down the Beresford offense as Vermillion scored a satisfying 8-0 win in Beresford.

VHS starting hurler Collin Bertram had a 3-0 lead with which to work before he ever climbed the mound, and that was more comfort than he usually needs. In his five innings of work Bertram allowed a lone hit – a fourth-inning single to shallow center by Matt Hoines – and walked one while posting strikeouts for 10 of the 15 outs he and his mates recorded.

Reliever Nate Garrett was likewise untouchable, retiring all six men he faced in finishing off the game.

Meanwhile, Beresford starter Ethan Sorenson was tagged for nine hits. He struck out three and walked two. He wasn't helped by the defense behind him as the Watchdogs committed five infield errors.

Two of those errors came in the top of the first, and the Tanagers quickly capitalized. A single by Bertram and an infield grounder by Chayse Meierkort produced a 1-0 lead. Tanner Anderson tripled for a second run and scored himself on a wild throw by the Beresford second-baseman.

Stormy Mirtz, who had tripled in the first inning, followed with an RBI single to score Meierkort in the third. Two more throwing errors on successive batters gave VHS a 5-0 lead.

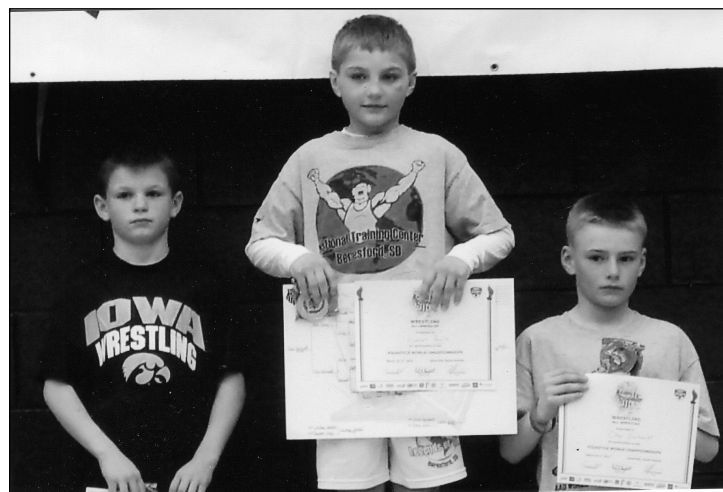

Five runs were plenty for Bertram as he cruised into the fifth, but for good measure the Tanagers got three insurance tallies in the top of that inning. A Caleb Miller double started this uprising. Two hit batters and a passed ball set the table for D'Andre Fore's two-run single. Another passed ball let in the final Tanager tally.

Fore, Mirtz and Miller each had two hits among Vermillion's 10.

The previous night, in a game delayed by a heavy downpour at Sergeant Bluff, IA, the Tanagers lost to Sergeant Bluff-Luton. Vermillion's record was 3-2 heading into a Tuesday date at Yankton.

Next week VHS will use the Easter Monday school holiday to play a pair of league varsity games at Mount Vernon at 4 and 6 p.m.

Anglin wins AAU World Folkstyle Championship

Lucus Anglin competed in the AAU World Folkstyle Championships in Spearfish, on April 16-17.

In his first-round match he faced Clay Gerhardt from Bismarck, ND. Anglin picked up a 8-2 decision.

In the quarter-final match-up Anglin faced a Cheyenne, WY, student and won by a fall in the second period. In the semi-final match Anglin won by a fall in the first period.

In the championship, Anglin squared off with Cole Larson of Sturgis, winning by a fall in the first period. With this win he became an AAU All-American.

5 WRESTLERS IN CHAMPIONSHIP

Fifteen Vermillion youth wrestlers participated in the State AAU Wrestling Tournament last weekend with 10 place winners. Jake Jensen, Lucus Anglin, Jack Kratz, Brody Surrell and Carter Kratz all made it to the championship match on Sunday by winning their semifinal match on Saturday. Lucus, Brody and Carter were crowned State Champions in their divisions. Rollie French, Kobe Culver and Trey Hage fought their way back to earn themselves a spot in the consolation championship on Sunday. Rollie and Kobe finished with a win. Hunter Christopherson wrestled tough as he earned himself a 7th place finish. Noah Westergaard also fought hard and earned himself a 5th place finish. Pictured front row L to R: Brody Surrell, Lucus Anglin and Carter Kratz. Middle row L to R: Jake Jensen, Trey Hage, Kobe Culver and Jack Kratz. Back row L to R: Hunter Christopherson and Rollie French.
