

"Sea of Grass" exhibit opens April 11th at Timber Lake Museum

Art meets history at Timber Lake on April 11 when the Timber Lake and Area Museum unveils the "Sea of Grass" art exhibit with a grand opening, artists' reception and art show.

Thirty-eight pieces of original art, created by 24 different artists and reproduced on 3 by 4 foot canvases, tell the rich history of the prairie region in this new permanent exhibit.

Peter Kilian, chairman of the Art Department at Northern State University in Aberdeen, an advisor for the project and one of the artists, said, "This project is truly an area partnership in the best sense of the word. Individuals, communities, businesses, non-profit, tribal and state organizations all came together to make the Sea of Grass project a reality."

Kilian added, "The Sea of Grass art project represents a living commitment to and celebration of community. This unique gift to the Timber Lake community and region will educate and inspire residents and visitors for many years to come - and serves as a model to other communities about the power of imagination and vision."

The title, "Sea of Grass," originated with UNA Howe of Dupree, project director.

"My impression of the prairie comes from the ancient times when the prairie was an ocean," Howe explained. "The grass on the prairie waves at us like waves from the ocean shores, and makes me think how we are sharing this landscape today with ancient fish that once swam in our home we call the prairie. As we travel on our paved roads let your imagination go with the idea that once sea creatures called this landscape home."

The project was envisioned years ago by the late Jim Nelson as a series of mini-murals to depict the history of Dewey and Corson counties and the Cheyenne River and Standing Rock reservations. He compiled a list of historical themes and events, which became the foundation of the project.

Recruiting of artists began in the spring of 2014 with grant funding from Cheyenne River Sioux Tribal Ventures and the South Dakota Arts Council, which is funded by the South Dakota Department of Tourism and

Nelson, president of the Timber Lake & Area Historical Society and Museum. "Most of the pieces were created especially for this exhibit but we borrowed a few that we knew about previously and a couple 'hidden treasures' turned up, including an Eddie Two

Community Center the same day.

A second "grand opening" is being planned for July 25 during Timber Lake's annual Days of 1910 Celebration.

An exhibit catalog will be available that explains the historical event or scene behind each visual image as well as photos and brief bios of the artists.

The participating artists are Del Iron Cloud, Dennis Linn, and Dale Stradinger of Rapid City; James Pollock of Pierre; Darren Maurer of Sioux City, IA; Mick Harrison of Belle Fourche; Jerry Fogg and Steve Randall of Sioux Falls; Brenda No Hawk Kohlman, Jacob Bosmoe and Peter Kilian of Aberdeen; Jay Jones of Trail City; Gordon Schnabel of Stanton, ND; the late Jack Reich of Isabel; the late Edward Two Bulls, Jr. of Hermosa; Jan Seurer of Hoven; Pamela Stolz of Hubbardston, Mass.; Linda Roesch of Roscoe; Bonnie Brahm of Humboldt; Merriel McMacken Zimmer of Mesa, AZ; Molly Krautkremer of Nisswa, MN; Judy Frank Deems of Cortez, CO; Charity Newman of Meadow; and Heather Kraft of Timber Lake.
