Gov. Daugaard asks for flags at half-staff Friday

At President Obama's request, Gov. Dennis Daugaard has asked that all flags in South Dakota be flown at half-staff on Friday, Aug. 31, from 8 a.m. until sunset in memory of former astronaut Neil Armstrong, who died Saturday.
 Armstrong, 82, was the first person to walk on the moon, doing so on July 20, 1969. A private funeral service will be held for Armstrong on Friday.

President Obama has ordered flags at half-staff this Friday at all public buildings, grounds and military facilities out of respect for Armstrong.
