

THE BLUFFS

Wednesday Morning Ladies Golf

July 24 was a very nice day. There were 21 ladies at luncheon. Thank you Agnes Mockler and Doris Heine for the tasty desserts. I ate one of each. It is great to have Pat Pratt and Ramona Kellogg back. Our drawing winners: Quarters – Mary Bartels, Marlys Jensen, Ellie Davis, Mary Lou Christopherson, Doris Heine, Ann Stewart and Me (Pat Steckelberg). The $5 drawings – Ramona Kellogg and Marlys Jensen. Marlys seems to be our lucky lady today.

Bridge report: High was Marlys Jensen. Golf report: Today we played regular golf. It was a good day to golf. Thank you Edith Nelson for golfing with me.

Dominos: Round 1 – Sue Kappenmann, Rula Hatch and Mary Lou Christopherson.

Round 2 – Anita White, Janet Hof, and Agnes Mockler.

Round 3 – Babe Hurowitz, Rula Hatch, and Rose Mart.

Total Score – Anita White, Janet Hof, and Agnes Mockler.

Seems there were two lucky ladies here, also.

We still have August and September. Come see us! Pat Steckelberg, Reporter

Men's Senior Golf Fun League

Sixteen seniors participated in a match-play format at The Bluffs on Tuesday, July 30.

The team of Bob Solomon and Alan Clem made a par on #14, while their opponents, Sid Davis and Shorty Hanson shot a bogey. That hole decided the match, because all the other scores were identical. The winning team shot a 40 and the losing team had a 41.

Floyd Boschee, Vern Holter and Gene Iverson defeated the team of Ray Lynn, Ken Beringer and Cleland Cook. The final hole of this match was #16 and they had to win or tie

USD cross country releases 2013 schedule

Two home meets and an early look at the Midwest Regional course in Ames, IA, highlight the 2013 South Dakota cross country schedule released today by head coach Dan Fitzsimmons.

The slate begins Sept. 6 in Vermillion with the Don Baker Invitational and builds towards November's Summit League and NCAA regional championships.

"This schedule allows us to see good competition without racing too early before the big meets hit in November," said Fitzsimmons. "We will race against Nebraska, Creighton and Omaha on our home course and I know our team and our fans are excited for those meets."

In addition to the Don Baker Invitational, the Coyotes host the Tim Young Invitational Oct. 19. Sandwiched between the two home meets are the Iowa State Invitational on Sept. 21 and the South Dakota State Classic on Oct. 4.

Fort Wayne hosts the Summit League Championships on Nov. 2. Iowa State hosts the NCAA regional Nov. 15. The Coyote men and women were runners up at the Summit a year ago. The men placed 12th at the NCAA Midwest Regional while the women finished 14th.

The USD men return six of seven runners from last year's team including senior Jeff Mettler, last year's Summit League runner up. The Coyote women will rely on five of their top eight from a year ago including three seniors and 2012 Summit League Newcomer of the Meet Amber Eichkorn.

Date	Meet	Location
Sept. 6	Don Baker Invitational	Vermillion
Sept. 21	Iowa State Invitational	Ames, IA
Oct. 4	South Dakota State Classic	Brookings
Oct. 19	Tim Young Invitational	Vermillion
Nov. 2	Summit League Championships	Fort Wayne, IN
Nov. 15	NCAA Midwest Regional Championships	Ames, IA
Nov. 23	NCAA National Championships	Terre Haute, IN

Buell named Scholar Athlete of the Year

Bethany Buell was named the Division I Outdoor Field Scholar Athlete of the Year, eight Coyotes were named to the All-Academic Track and Field team and both men's and women's track and field teams placed in the top-10 for team GPA according to releases by the U.S. Track and Field/Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) on Wednesday.

Buell, a psychology major with a 3.97 GPA, won the Division I outdoor pole vault title in June and had the nation's best vault last season at 14 feet, 7 1/2 inches. Buell is the first Summit League athlete to receive a USTFCCCA Scholar Athlete of the Year honor, and was named a Capital One Academic All-American earlier this summer.

"I couldn't be more proud of Bethany and this award speaks volumes to her academic prowess and her athletic excellence," USD Athletic Director David Herbster said. "Bethany winning this award sends the message that South Dakota student athletes can and will compete for both academic and athletic excellence on a national level."

Buell was also named the women's Summit League Outdoor Field Athlete of the Year and earned All-American honors during both indoor and outdoor seasons.

"I'm thrilled that Bethany has been recognized for her academic and her athletic accomplishments," USD's faculty athletic representative Tina Keller said. "She has been a wonderful ambassador for USD, and her accomplishments show that South Dakota student athletes will continue to shine at the national level."

Along with Buell, five women and two men were named to the All-Academic Track and Field Team. Pole vault teammates Emily Grove, Madison Mills and Hunter Wilkes all joined Buell with women's All-Academic team honors, as did hurdler Alexa Duling and high jumper Megan Glisar. Hurdler Erik Hill and distance runner Jeff Mettler were named to the men's All-Academic team.

The women's track and field team also had the seventh-best cumulative team GPA in Division I according to the USTFCCCA, finishing with a mark of 3.53. The Coyotes, who placed 18th at the NCAA Division I Outdoor Track and Field Championships last month, were one of two Summit League programs in the women's top-10. The team's GPA was better than all Big 10 teams, all ACC teams and seven Ivy League teams.

The Coyote men tied Dartmouth College for the 10th-best men's team GPA in Division I at 3.31. The men had the best GPA in the Summit League and topped all Big Ten schools, 11 ACC schools and six Ivy League schools.

Wofford had the top women's team GPA at 3.61 while Arizona had the best men's GPA at 3.511.

Scholar Athlete of the Year Awards are determined from those who earned All-Academic status and placed highest in individual events at the NCAA Championships. Those who earn multiple individual championship titles rank higher in the tie-breaking process, and cumulative GPA is weighed as the final tiebreaker. Separate awards are given to track athletes and field athletes for the indoor and outdoor seasons.

To qualify for the USTFCCCA All-Academic Track and Field Team, a student athlete must have a cumulative grade point average of 3.25 and have met either of the following athletic standards: for the indoor season, a student athlete must have

Kaufman named head of USD ticketing

The University of South Dakota has named Chris Kaufman as coordinator of ticket operations and sales. Kaufman will begin his new duties immediately.

Kaufman has been the athletics ticketing and operations assistant at USD since August 2011, where his duties included selling season tickets, processing ticket orders and ensuring the department is compliant with NCAA Division I regulations. He has also been a part of ticket operations for the South Dakota High School Football Championships held at the DakotaDome every year.

"I've been going to Coyote events since I was five years old and I am excited to be at USD as part of the Coyote family," Kaufman said.

Prior to USD, Kaufman was a marketing intern at Minnesota State University, Mankato and served as an event assistant at the 2010 Division II Central Region Men's Basketball Tournament. He was also a fan services representative for the Sioux Falls Canaries in 2005.

Kaufman graduated from Minnesota State University, Mankato in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in sports management. He earned his master's degree in organizational management with an emphasis in sport management from Wayne State in 2011.
