

Scholarship recipients announced at USD

The University of South Dakota has announced its freshman class scholars, who are enrolled for fall classes that begin at the end of this month, including recipients of top university scholarships such as the George S. Mickelson Scholarship, the Dorothy Schieffer Scholarship, the Walter A. and Lucy Yoshioka Buhler Endowed Scholarship, the Presidential Alumni Scholarship and Glen E. and Barbara R. Ullyot Lakota Scholarship.

These scholarships are among the most prestigious awards offered by USD, and provide outstanding students with four-year, renewable awards contingent upon the student maintaining the minimum grade point average and meeting all other conditions of the renewal criteria as specified by the award.

The three recipients of the George S. Mickelson Scholarships enrolled at USD this fall are Andrew Koch, a graduate of Sioux Falls Washington High School, Katelyn Loutsch, a graduate of Milbank High School, and John Slunicka, a graduate of Sioux Falls Roosevelt High School. Valued at $40,000 over a four-year period, recipients of the George S. Mickelson Scholarship must maintain a minimum 3.5 cumulative GPA and remain enrolled full-time on the Vermillion campus.

The Dorothy S. Schieffer Scholarship offers full scholarship opportunities for students seeking political science as a major or minor and was presented to Nathaniel Steinlicht, a graduate of Milbank High School. The Walter A. and Lucy Yoshioka Buhler Endowed Scholarship provides full in-state tuition and fees, and an international study abroad opportunity for student recipients. Brandon Ness, a graduate of Waubay High School, is this year's Buhler Scholar.

Presidential Alumni Scholarships, valued at $28,000 over a four-year period, were awarded to 10 USD freshmen: Adam Fenton of Temecula, CA, Corina Larson of Aberdeen; Thayme Watson of Brookings; Thorn Dramstad of Huron; Tanner Colombe of Mission. Colombe is also a recipient of a Glen E. and Barbara R. game. Humboldt jumped on pitcher Odens for three runs in the top of the first, and Vermillion looked to be in for a long day.

But just as they have done all year, Vermillion rallied. Regan Bye got the Vermillion offense started with an RBI single, plating Travis Weber in the bottom of the second. Vermillion pushed across another run in the inning, cutting the lead to 3-2 after two.

Good pitching by both teams kept the score 3-2 from the second to the seventh inning. Odens pitched the whole game for Vermillion, settling down from the rough first to throw a great game. The Teeners were trailing by a run going into the season's final three outs, but the boys from Vermillion had a little magic left.

Jake Oden led off the inning with a single to ignite the rally. Joe Miller was charged to bunt Odens to second, but he did more than that, beating out a well-placed bunt for a single of his own.

With runners at first and second and no outs, Jack Brown was hit by a pitch load the bases.

After Weber struck out, James came to the plate looking to tie the game. An errant fastball drilled James in the shoulder, granting him first base and tying the game with still only one out in the inning.

With Miller standing at third as the winning run, the stage was set for Regan Bye to play hero. Bye crushed the first pitch he saw over the right fielders head, easily driving in Miller and winning the game in walk-off fashion.

The walk-off put an exclamation point on an impressive season for the 15/16 Teeners. A playoff record of 6-1 and a third-place trophy were among the year's accolades for the group coached by TJ Beacom.
