

THE BLUFFS

Wednesday Morning Ladies Golf

A humid day on Aug. 21, but 23 ladies ventured out for luncheon and games.

Barb Larson, and Thelma Raines provided the desserts – four of them – and they were great. I did have one of each. Love Wednesdays!

Our group purchased a new print for the Bluffs. It is awesome. Thank you Janet Hof for your diligence in finding it, getting it framed, and a metal plaque on it with our group's name, Wednesday Morning Ladies. Come out and see it on the west wall.

Our lucky money winners – $5 drawings: Irma Burbach and Marlys Jensen.

Quarters – Barb Larson, Janet Hof, Ann Stewart (twice), Ellie Davis, Agnes Mockler, Thelma Raines and Beth Silvano.

Golf: Played Bingo, Bango, Bongo, No Ruff Stuff and One Putt.

Five were out to play today, and Edith Nelson was our winner with 12 points.

It was a bit humid but still had fun. Mary Lea Hennies had to golf barefoot. Forgot her shoes! Did pretty well without them!

Dominoes: There were two tables today. Round 1: Vanetta Youngworth and Judy Sullivan.

Round 2: Maxine Rogers and Rose Mart.

Round 3: Ann Stewart and Brenda Chatham.

Total Score: Beth Silvano and Rose Mart.

Bridge: A great day for dominoes – two tables. Eight ladies and lots of fun.

Marlys Jensen was High and Ellie Davis was Second High.

Five Wednesdays left, lots of friendship, and lots of fun. Come out and be our guest.

Cyclones edge USD 3-1

By Jeremy Hoeck

The number of times a BCS conference team played a game or a match in Vermillion could be counted on one hand. More accurately, you wouldn't need a full five fingers.

Just one.

The USD soccer team got an up-close look Sunday afternoon of one of those high-major teams, Iowa State, and in almost every measurable fashion — aside from the final score, 3-1 — hung right with their Big 12 Conference counterparts.

"It's awesome," said USD sophomore midfielder Danielle Anderson, who scored the team's only goal, in the 51st minute. "We came ready to play; just wish we could've won. It's a great learning experience, though."

Division I competition has steadily increased for every USD sport since the move to D-I in 2008, but never before had a team hosted a BCS conference opponent. The Coyote soccer team did host Nebraska back in 2008, but that was an exhibition.

How close was Sunday's action? USD out-shot the Cyclones 15-12 and Iowa State had a slight 7-6 edge in shots on goal. The Cyclones, however, scored on a penalty kick early in the second half and later capitalized on a USD mistake in front of the net.

"Seeing this kind of level is good for us, especially at home," USD head coach Mandy Green said. "With conference, you have a few chances. Here, this was one chance."

Playing the back end of a home and home series (Iowa State beat USD 7-0 last year in Ames), the Coyotes and Cyclones have a number of factors in common, despite their different levels.

Both programs, for the most part, recruit much the same area. Iowa State boasts seven Colorado players, while USD has three. ISU has three Nebraska natives, while USD has one. The Coyotes have five players from Minnesota, while ISU boasts two.

The two recruiting paths crossed on the field Sunday, as sisters Kylee — a USD junior — and Koree — an ISU freshman — matched up against each other for the first time.

In preparing for the Cyclones, the Coyotes had certain, small goals, Green said.

"We wanted to at least get their coach off the bench, and she was a couple times, barking at them," Green said. "Then at halftime, we could hear the coaches talking about adjustments."

"Hopefully we earned some respect from them."

The Coyotes also felt better about themselves after Friday's 1-1 double overtime with Loyola, Anderson said.

"Extreme improvement," she said. "The energy was a thousand times better. Off the bench, they all contributed right out of the gate."

Seventy-three seconds after Anderson tied the game at 1-1 early in the second half, Iowa State scored on a penalty kick from Emily Goldstein. Ten minutes later, Jennifer Dominguez padded the ISU lead on an unassisted goal.

After the horn had sounded, the Coyotes were already talking about their upcoming road trip this weekend. They play at Wyoming on Friday and at Colorado-Colorado Springs on Sunday.

"We're really excited to get on the road," Anderson said. "Even though school is just starting, it's another opportunity to prove ourselves."

Though USD does not have any other high-major games on the schedule this year, the program will continue to bring in quality teams from its same level, Green said. She pointed to Wyoming, Creighton and North Dakota as teams that will return to Vermillion in 2014, while USD is set to travel to Northern Iowa, Drake, Grand Canyon (AZ) and Northern Arizona — among other games.
