

What's Happening At Newton Hills And Good Earth

BY GIANNA HARTY AND CORTNEY REEDY

This weekend at Newton Hills we are trying on our sleuthing shoes! On Friday, August 14th at 8:30 p.m. we will be showing a movie at the amphitheater. Saturday, August 15th at 10 am we are starting off the day with a Scavenger Hunt Hike. Bring some good shoes and water to enjoy the scenery while testing out your senses! Then at 1pm we will be meeting for Critter Detective to learn about some of the awesome adaptations different animals use to survive and thrive. When 2:30 pm rolls around, you can find us playing Predator Prey to learn more about our amazing animals. Then at 4 pm we will be doing a craft in the amphitheater. In the evening we will show a movie at 8:30 p.m. at the amphitheater. On Sunday, August 16th you are welcome to join in a non-denominational worship service at 9 am at the amphitheater. Come as you are, all are welcome, and refreshments will be provided.

Abundant beauty and good times await you at Good Earth State Park at Blood Run! The forces at Good Earth State Park are at work, come see for yourself! On Friday, August 14th at 7 pm is Our River. How the river was used from pre-historic times to today, wildlife and waterfowl that rely on it, and how we can keep it clean. Then on Saturday from 11 am to 3 pm is Forces of Good Earth. Earth, wind, fire, and water are the forces that have sculpted Good Earth State Park. In celebration of these forces Good Earth State Park is hosting a monthly event. Come enjoy the various events throughout the day including a riddle hike, scavenger hunt, and crafts!

If you have any questions about the park or the programs for this coming weekend, do not hesitate to give us a call at (605) 987-2263 or email newtonhills@state.sd.us. More info including an event schedule may also be found online at www.gfp.sd.gov. If you would like to receive weekly email updates on programming at the park, like us on Facebook, or send an email to newtonhills@state.sd.us. The staff at Newton Hills and Good Earth looks forward to seeing you at the park this summer!

Photographs Sought For World Tourism Days Statewide Photo Contest

SPEARFISH... Black Hills State University is looking to capture South Dakota tourism in a unique way.

South Dakota student photographers are asked to participate in the 2015 World Tourism Days Photo Contest & Exhibition. The photo contest is part of a larger, week-long World Tourism Days celebration that will be held in September at BHSU in partnership with the South Dakota Department of Tourism.

"It's time to celebrate the diversity of the businesses in our community and contribution of tourism in society," said Ignatius Cahyanto, assistant professor of tourism and hospitality management. "We want to capture the different range of the tourism business."

The photo contest is currently open for submissions. All South Dakota students at universities, colleges and high schools statewide are eligible to submit their work. Submissions must be original photographs taken within the past two years that celbrate what makes South Dakota a special place to live, work and most importantly visit.

The deadline for photo submissions is Friday, Sept. 4. Photographers can submit their images online at www.BHSU.edu/WorldTourismDay. Photographers will be notified of their acceptance on Sept. 7.

Awards will be announced during World Tourism Days in September. First place will receive a full scholarship to the Black Hills Photo Shootout (a $500 value); second place will receive $150; third place and People's Choice will receive $100 each.

For more information on the World Tourism Days Photo Contest & Exhibition, contact Jerry Rawlings at Jerry.Rawlings@BHSU.edu or call 605-642-6391.

For more information on the 2015 World Tourism Days celebration, including the Tourism & Hospitality Expo at BHSU, contact Dr. Ignatius Cahyanto at Ignatius.Cahyanto@BHSU.edu or call 605-642-6876.
