

A Fun Time At The

THOMAS HATZENBUHLER/ FOR THE PLAIN TALK
Top Left: 4-H exhibitor Katlynn Noteboom readies her cow with a quick wash and scrub down before the beef show at the Clay County Fair.
Top Right: 4-H judge Bill Nelson analyzes a purple ribbon winning rabbit at the 4-H rabbit show at the Clay County Fair. Many of the entrants for the rabbit show were awarded purple ribbons this year.
Right: 4-H judge Melissa Wirt and 4-H exhibitor Daniel Havermann examine Sunshine the cat during the 4-H cat show at the Clay County Fair on Thursday.
Middle Left: Pie tasting judges Cyndie Madsen (left) and Delores Gregg (right) sample a rhubarb pineapple pie during the pie tasting competition held on Saturday during the Clay County Fair.
Middle Right: Bobby Horton, of Café Brûlé (left), and Joe Mazour, of Cherry Street Grille (right), compete in the Iron Chef competition of this year's Clay County Fair. Horton was named the winner and earned the title of Clay County Iron Chef.
Bottom: Four-year-old Ben Bohnsack of Vermillion wins an award for completing a full pull at the Dakota Kids Pedal Pull event held at the Clay County Fair on Friday. His accomplishment earns him a competitive place at the state competition.

Let The Broadcaster
 and Plain Talk
 Make Cash
 For You!

Broadcaster and Plain Talk private party classified line ads are now FREE for 30 words or less. If you need more than 30 words, don't worry you still won't pay alot. A 31-word ad is only $.90 and the cost only goes up $.50 per word thereafter.

Place your ad by calling the Broadcaster/Plain Talk office at 605-624-4429 or by stopping in at 201 W. Cherry Street today!

