Thank You Vermillion!

Once again we must offer our sincere gratitude and thank you to the citizens and the community of Vermillion. The loss of our father and grandfather has been difficult for us, but the generosity, love, and caring you have all extended to us has been truly amazing. Dad was a people person who made and maintained countless friendships throughout this 92 years, and the depth of those friendships has been displayed in abundance to all of us. What loyal and loving people you are. We were especially touched by all the personal memories and comments in the cards...some stories we never knew, some we had forgotten...but all will be cherished forever.

A special thank you to the Kober Funeral Home for their compassion, their humor, and the respectful way they handled a difficult and emotional time for our family. Another special thank you to the Vermillion Police Department...what an honor to Dad's memory to have them so involved.

Dad loved Vermillion and it appears to us that Vermillion loved him back. Thank you so much for the wonderful life Dad got to live in this special place.
