HOWARD O'CONNOR

Howard O'Connor, 97, of Vermillion, SD died December 3, 2014 at the Sanford Vermillion Care Center.

Funeral mass was at 10:30 AM Monday, December 8 at the St Agnes Catholic Church in Vermillion with Father John Fischer officiating; burial followed in the Calvary Cemetery in Vermillion. Visitation was at 5:30 PM Sunday, December 7 with a Rosary beginning at 7:00 PM followed by a prayer service all at the Church.

Howard was born May 26, 1917, the son of John S. and Theresa (Fleege) O'Connor. Howard spent this entire life in the Garryowen and Vermillion communities.

He married Lucille Kribell May 12, 1945. They made their home on a farm in the Garryowen community where they lived for 33 years and raised their eleven children before moving to Vermillion, March 1, 1978.

Howard was a farmer who took pride in raising hogs and fields of corn and soybeans with straight rows and no weeds. After retirement Howard continued to plant colorful rows of zinnias in his backyard. When Howard was a young man, hand corn picking contests were the big competition for young farmers. Howard set a new Clay County record by picking 30.98 bushel in 80 minutes, the best record in South

His Catholic faith, his family, his Irish heritage and his liberal Democratic politics were his top priorities. Howard was a member of St. Agnes Catholic Church, the Lions and Eagles clubs.

Howard and Lucille renewed their marriage vows during their 60th wedding

MONDAY, DEC. 1 1:00 a.m. - An officer saw a man he knew drive by a residence. The officer was aware of a protection order issued by the court that forbid the man to be within 500 feet of the residence. The officer arrested the man for violating the protection

TUESDAY, DEC. 2

Caller reported her parents had received a phone message from a caller claiming to be with the US Treasury Department and insisting they call immediately or face police action. This type of call is a fraud. you call back you will be pressured to pay for fictitious fees they claim you owe. Do not call them back, and if you answer the phone don't provide any personal or financial information to these thieves.

11:20 p.m. - An officer stopped a driver for speeding. He was intoxicated and his driver's license was suspended. He was arrested for DWI and driving while suspended.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 3 8:25 a.m. - An officer stopped a driver for speeding 30mph in a 15 mph school zone. The driver was intoxicated on a combination of alcohol and marijuana. She was arrested for DWI.

THURSDAY, DEC. 4

1:38 a.m. - Caller reported that while he was driving his girlfriend's new vehicle it was struck by an unknown driver in a hit and run accident. As part of the investigation, officer reviewed a private camera that covered the area where the vehicle was it. It was discovered the caller actually was driving at the time of the accident and hit another parked vehicle. The caller was charged with false reporting.

1:37 p.m. - School Resource Officer determined a student had a stolen Ipad from a local retail store. Charges were referred to the States

Attorne 1:53 p.m. - A school bus driver reported a car drove past the bus while the stop sign was extended and the flashers were going. The driver was located and admitted to being in the area but did not see the sign or flashers. Information was forwarded to States Attorney.

7:42 p.m. - A local business reported catching a shoplifter. The suspect confessed to police and a search of her purse revealed several other items that the theft had forgotten she had taken. The woman was charged with theft. 7:53 p.m. - A local bar requested a man be removed from the bar as he was randomly yelling at patrons making people nervous. Officers removed the man and a short time later got a call to another bar where the man was repeating his behavior. Officers had determined the man was on parole and finally got a call back from the man's parole officer. who said to arrest the man if he was over a breath alcohol level of .05.

10:07 p.m. - Caller reported he was being harassed by his girlfriends ex. Interview revealed the caller had not been contacted by the ex, but had heard from a friend of a friend that he was angry about his relationship with his girlfriend. Officers explained no criminal behavior had occurred.

11:44 p.m. - Complainant reported he felt threatened by a woman who had repeated harassed him and made comments about killing people. Officers assisted the man in completing the paperwork for a protection order.

FRIDAY, DEC. 5

7:21 p.m. - Caller reported an adult was missing from their group after the group attended the Parade of Lights. The missing woman was under the care of a guardian and become confused easily. Officers assisted the guardian with searching for the woman who was located about a half hour later.
