Tanager boys beat Beresford

By Parker Knox
Sportswriter

The Big 8 Conference boys basketball championship race reaches crunch time tonight (Friday) when Vermillion and Madison, neither of whom has lost in league play, clash at Madison.

It is the first of two games between the Tanagers and the Bulldogs. The second will be at the VHS gym on Feb. 14.

As if the conference showdown isn't big enough, another game of significance faces the Tanagers on Tuesday at home against Dakota Valley, with whom Vermillion is battling for the right to host District 8A play later this month.

First the Big 8 situation: Assuming Madison won its game over winless West Central last night (Thursday), the Bulldogs will stand 6-0 in the Big 8, and the Tanagers are 5-0. Besides its two Madison games, VHS has a conference contest at Harrisburg next Friday.

Meanwhile, so far as district seeding is concerned, Dakota Valley is 10-3 heading into a game with Elk Point-Jefferson tonight, and the Tanagers are 10-4. The top-seeded team gets to play the district tournament at the end of February on its home court.

The Panthers' only losses have been once to Sioux City Bishop Heelan, 67-59, and twice to top-rated, unbeaten Sioux Falls Christian by scores of 88-69 and 81-49. Dakota Valley has a pair of three-point wins over Tea Area and a seven-point victory over Tri-Valley. Otherwise, the Panthers have won their other seven games by comfortable margins.

A veteran team that went all the way to the state "A" championship game last March, Dakota Valley is paced by senior guards Blake Van Ginkel, Aaron Likness and Keegan McCabe, senior forward Andrew Reiff and junior guard Brody Van Ginkel.

Treat yourself.
