

Sweetheart Supper held for Sanford Care Center residents

Lucas Anglin and Jack Kratz competed in the Wild West Championships in Gillette, WY, on Feb. 16. Lucas went 5-0 enroute to winning the 10U 69 pound weight class with the win in the Monster March in Denver on Nov. 3, 2012, and third place Las Vegas All Star Dec. 15, 2012. Lucas moves into first place in the RMN series at 10U 69 pounds. Jack competed in his first national tournament of the year in the 10U 80 pound class. He had a 10-man bracket and finished up fourth in a hard fought bracket. Jack beat the No. 3 seed kid in the quarter finals by fall, and then lost a hard fight in the semi finals 9-4. Congrats to Jack and Lucas on a job well done.

Residents at Sanford Care Center Vermillion were delighted to enjoy a Sweetheart Supper with their valentine last week.

Thanks to the coordination and planning by Julie Rolfes, activities coordinator, Barb Kingsbury, nutrition services manager and their staff, a very special Valentine's dinner was planned for those residents with a spouse or significant other able to join them.

"Nights like this are one of the highlights of my job. Being able to bless these wonderful couples with a special meal together was a real treat for me too," said Julie Rolfes, activities coordinator.

The cafeteria at Sanford Vermillion was transformed into a lovely, intimate dining space with a special ambiance for all to enjoy. Fourteen couples gathered for the beautifully served four-course meal complete with a choice of coffee, tea or wine.

The meal included shrimp cocktail, a lovely salad and New York Strip steak with red wine sauce accompanied by potatoes gratin. They concluded the evening with red velvet cupcakes for dessert.

"The room looked beautiful, the food was delicious and the service super. It truly made this Valentine's Day special," said

Bill Willroth, care center resident and wife Joann in a thank you note sent to all the staff involved.

"Joyce and I used to go out for a steak dinner every Valentine's Day. We haven't been able to do something like this in 10 years," said Floyd Gross, whose wife Joyce resides at the Care Center.

"My staff all worked together to make this a truly special evening. Each one of us felt so fortunate to help recreate something for these couples that isn't always possible at this stage in their lives," said Barb Kingsbury. "Of the many meals and events we are involved in, this has certainly been my favorite by far."

To top off the Valentine's holiday for all the residents, the care center also held a Valentine's Party for everyone on Feb. 14. Valentine "mailboxes" were hung outside each resident's door for the month of February.

Each resident had fun opening their valentines from staff and family members. The highlight of the party was crowning this year's Valentine's Royalty.

Residents, staff and family members had been placing their ballots in the box for several weeks - all leading up to the crowning of Bill Willroth and Marilyn Bennett - Valentine's Royalty 2013!

The Tanagers' regular-season mark evened out at 10-10 after a 48-39 loss to Wagner at the VHS gym on Feb. 12, a contest which featured a turn-around of epic proportions.

Vermillion led 10-3 after a quarter, 23-9 at halftime and led by 25-9 in the first minute of the third period on Josie Huber's field goal. But amazingly that comfortable 16-point advantage had shrunk to a mere 32-30 by the time the quarter ended.

From a 34-34 tie shortly thereafter, Wagner raced to a 41-34 lead. The closest the Tanagers came after that was 43-39 on Mackenzie Huber's field goal. The final five points came on free throws for the Red Raiders, who had capitalized all night long on that very facet of the game. Because the Tanagers fouled 23 times to Wagner's nine, the visitors had 27 free-throw chances, making 20 of them, while the Tanagers shot only six free throws, sinking five.

Josie Huber led VHS with 16 points. Mackenzie Huber added seven, Allison Heine six, Brooke Schwasinger five, Shantel French three and Courtney Johnson two.

The end of the season in Tuesday's district play also ended the VHS careers of Courtney Johnson, Brooke Schwasinger, Mackenzie Huber, Allison Heine and Blair Gilkyson.
