

Invitation quick guide

Congratulations! You've set a date, and now it's time to tell your friends and family the good news!

Whether you have an invitation style in mind or are not quite sure where to begin, PaperWerks' Invitation Specialists can guide you through the process of creating the perfect save-the-date, wedding invitation and ceremony program for your big day, even when you're on a budget.

Working with various paper styles, weights and textures, PaperWerks can create your invitation from start to finish. Or if you prefer, you have the opportunity to choose from their abundant inventory of paper, envelopes and invitation accessories to complete your DIY (do-it-yourself) wedding stationery. Their store in Sioux Falls is full of invitation and program samples, you'll be sure to find the perfect stationery items to fit your colors and theme.

PaperWerks' quick guide in preparing to order your invitations:

* Gather all of the event details. While you probably have your wedding date memorized, be sure to gather venue names and addresses, the correct spellings of your fiancé's parents' names (if you'll be including them on the invitation) and any other specific details your guests may need to know.

* Double check your guest list. Remember, your invitation quantity is determined by addresses. Break your list into family and friends and count the number of households, not people.

* Decide which style of RSVP card you would like as part of your invitation suite. While a card with corresponding envelope is more traditional, a postcard-style RSVP is a more economical option for printing as well as postage costs.

* Have fun with the invitation ordering process. PaperWerks is excited to help you announce the big day!
