SURGERY — A COMPLETE ANESTHESIA TEAM

WHO'S WATCHING YOUR VITAL SIGNS?

"I believe that having three board-certified anesthesiologists adds an extra level of care and peace of mind for our patients."

CHARLES CAMMOCK, MD
Yankton Anesthesiology
Avera Sacred Heart Hospital Chief of Staff

Choose With Confidence.

Look no further.

>>> A major task during surgery is keeping track of your vital signs, both during and after. Which is why Avera Sacred Heart depends on a complete anesthesia team – featuring three board-certified anesthesiologists and eight certified nurse anesthetists – for the highest level of attention and care.

In fact, we're the only hospital in the region to have medical doctors of anesthesia (MDA), specially trained to detect potential problems, overseeing patient care. So there's no question who's watching your vital signs.

There is a difference.
