busy and successful day. He pinned Dylan Bludom, Brandon Valley, in 4:21 in the first round, then lost to the eventual runner-up, Roosevelt's Kyle Yasgar, 5-2. Kratz stayed alive with a pair of pins---in 2:56 over Austin Odland, Lennox, and in 4:57 over Casey Johnson, Flandreau. Garretson's Colby Pierret bested Kratz, 6-2, sending the Tanager into the fifth-place match where he lost 6-2 to Harrisburg's Zach Gross. Kratz is 14-9 for the year.

Seth Heine at 182 pounds pinned O'Gorman's Gage Hillberg in 5:45 to start his day. Unbeaten Jackson Entringer, Dell Rapids, pinned Heine in 3:48. Heine then won by major decision, 12-2, over Brandon Valley's Eric Eigenberg before losing in a 59-second pin to Huron's Tyler Kleinsasser. In the seventh-place match Heine was pinned in 4:56 by Dylan Rouzyer, Garretson, and now stands at 9-10 for the season.

At 160 pounds Brandon Hertz sustained two losses by pin. He fell to Canton's Jaydn Broughton in 3:41 and to Spencer Heidebrink, Brandon Valley, in 4:04. Hertz is 8-8 for the season.

Noah Westergaard, Vermillion's 195-pounder, lost by pin in 1:17 to Andrew Sorensen, Brandon Valley, then won by major decision, 11-2, over Shay Postma, Fulda-Murray County Central. Westergaard's day ended with a 13-0 loss to Sam Lynde, West Central.

The Tanagers wrestle at the Harrisburg Invitational this Saturday, then travel to Canton for a dual next Thursday.

Huber's hot shooting helps Tanagers defeat Parkston

By Parker Knox
 Sportswriter

Vermillion's Tanager girls accelerated through a torrid first half, survived a sluggish third quarter, then refused to let Parkston back into the game Friday as they won for the second straight night.

Their 57-34 domination of a one-loss Parkston team, preceded by a 53-50 road win at Sioux Falls Christian the previous night, lifted the Tanagers to a 5-2 record.

Josie Huber scored Vermillion's first 10 points herself, 15 in the first quarter and 22 in the first half en route to a 28-point performance in leading the VHS offense.

Three three-point field goals were part of Huber's smoking-hot first period after which the Tanagers led by 18-9. An 8-0 run as halftime approached allowed Vermillion to go from a 10-point lead to a 32-14 margin, and it was 36-17 at the intermission after Brooke Schwasinger beat the buzzer with two of her 12 points.

Up to that point VHS had shot 61 percent from the field, including five of six from long range, while Parkston was 2-of-11 in its three-point attempts.

While the VHS offense went suddenly cold in the third quarter, Coach Nick Mayer's athletes still made their defensive stops at the other end and forced Parkston into taking tough shots. At one point when the Tanagers led 42-20, Parkston tried to go on a run of its own, getting to within 18 but then missing three straight three-point attempts which, if successful, might have put some pressure on the Tanagers. But it was still 42-27 after three periods.

Neither team could connect on short shots as the final stanza began, and VHS had scored just six points over a 10-minute stretch since halftime. But a free throw from Schwasinger and a bank shot by Mackenzie Huber were crucial as the Tanagers restored their lead to a comfortable 45-27 spread. As the minutes ticked away, the Tanagers showed maturity and patience in killing time and waiting for good opportunities to score. They also made nine of 12 free throws in the final quarter.

Besides Josie Huber's 28 and Schwasinger's 12 points, Mackenzie Huber contributed six, Blair Gilkyson five, Courtney Johnson four and Allison Heine two points. The Tanagers committed only seven turnovers.

For Parkston Krista Radke had eight points, Alexis Horstman eight and Erica Herrold seven.

In the win at Sioux Falls Christian, the Tanagers led 23-22 at halftime. Schwasinger stepped up big with a 19-point game, complemented by Josie Huber's 14 points and five steals. For Christian, Haley McCarron had 23 points and 14 rebounds while Kristin Stern added 13 points and five steals.

After playing Madison this past Tuesday and hosting Lennox last night (Thursday), the Tanager girls hit the road to Elk Point-Jefferson next Tuesday and to Lennox next Friday. The next home game will be Jan. 22 against West Central.
