

Reminder for late season deer hunters

PIERRE – Deer hunters who have unfilled antlerless deer tags for the East and West River Deer Seasons will have nine additional days available to harvest antlerless deer beginning Dec. 28 and ending on Jan. 5.

South Dakota Game Fish and Parks Terrestrial Chief Tom Kirschenmann said the change was in effect last season as well.

“Our offices have taken many calls asking about unfilled ‘any deer’ tags. Prior to last year, ‘any deer’ tags converted to ‘antlerless’ tags for these last nine days of the season,” Kirschenmann said. “That is no longer the case. Only unfilled ‘antlerless’ tags are valid during this time frame.”

The changes were made in 2012 as part of deer herd management objectives to direct additional antlerless harvest in the areas of the state that need it most while curtailing the doe harvest where deer populations are at or below population objectives.

These changes will also apply to the Archery and Muzzleloader Seasons as well.

Only unfilled ‘any antlerless deer’ tags are valid from January 1-15.

For specific information on the respective deer seasons, visit <http://gfp.sd.gov/hunting/big-game/deer/default.aspx>.

Vermillion River Basin project

By Elmer Ward
Resource Specialist

The Vermillion River Basin Implementation Project, which covers parts of 14 counties up and down the Vermillion River, in partnership with USDA’s Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP), is still providing technical and financial assistance to producers within the Vermillion River Basin.

The financial portion of the project is a partnership with the EQIP Program and is intended to help clean up the waters of the Vermillion River.

The two main conservation practices used by the project to assist in achieving this goal are Animal Waste Management Systems and Riparian Area Management.

Both of these practices have priority areas established within two miles of the main stem of the river.

Individual operators outside the priority area can be evaluated on a case-by-case basis and can be determined to be eligible to participate if the benefits to the project are great enough.

The technical assistance to producers is provided to help implement the programs of the Farm Bill such as CRP, Wildlife Habitat Incentives Program and Conservation Security Program.

If you have any questions or are interested in participating in the project, contact the conservation district in your home county or call the project coordinator, Elmer Ward, at (605) 280-8518 and set up an appointment to get your answers.

Lion’s Club member receives top honor

Lion’s Club president Mick Breske presented long-time member Keith Joy with the distinguished Melvin Jones Fellowship, the highest honor awarded within the club.

The special event took place on Thursday, Dec. 12 at the Vermillion Lions Club’s annual Christmas party.

Joy has been a member of the local club for more than 35 years, and has been very active in many projects and activities, including leadership roles in their annual Christmas Box

Project and USD Sports Event Project. He is also an anchor in the club’s main fundraiser “Pancake Days,” which is held twice a year to supplement many club activities.

The Fellowship recipient is selected by a special committee that follows a voting process, choosing from the clubs entire membership.

Joy has been an asset and an inspiration to the local club in Vermillion, and well deserving of this award.
