Sanford med school reps to visit FARM sites

Dean of the University of South Dakota Sanford School of Medicine Mary Nettleman, M.D., M.S., M.A.C.P. and Susan Anderson, M.D., Director of the school's Frontier And Rural Medicine (FARM) program will visit FARM's inaugural clinical training sites to present commemorative plaques recognizing the communities' participation in the program.

On July 11, visited Winner Regional Hospital in Winner. On July 12, they will visit Platte Health Center Avera at 10 a.m. in Platte, SD, before visiting Avera St. Benedict's Health Center Education Center in Parkston, SD at 12:30 p.m.

Planned attendees for the ceremonies include each site hospital's CEO, FARM program physician coordinators and community ambassadors and FARM program students. "We are eager for the opportunity to build strong, productive relationships with our outstanding FARM program communities," said Anderson. "These visits represent important steps toward that end - and toward a healthier South Dakota."

Designed to combat the rural health care shortage, the FARM program is a unique opportunity for select groups of third-year medical students to obtain clinical training in carefully selected rural South Dakota communities - Milbank, Mobridge, Winner, Platte and Parkston. Beginning in July of 2014, participants will spend nine intensive months working with local physicians and becoming immersed in the communities.

More FARM site visits will take place in early September 2013, including Mobridge and Milbank.

Sunday evening Experience at ONE HOUR is comprised of two primary elements: powerful worship and a life-changing message. Worship at ONE HOUR is led by a talented live band in a style that is consistent with today's culture and a relevant teaching message from LifeChurch.tv's senior pastor, Craig Groeschel, via video broadcast. The worship is intense and the teaching is challenging but the environment will be relaxed and casual. ONE HOUR on the USD Campus at the MUC, 6:30pm Sundays! www.one-hour.org
