

THE BLUFFS

Wednesday Morning Ladies Golf

Today, July 10, we were honored with three guests – Arlys Mason, Jane Kugler and Kay Powell. Welcome ladies and it was great having you with us.

There were 23 present for luncheon. Thank you, Cherry Street Grille!

Desserts were provided by Mary Lea Hennies and Ann Stewart. Both treats were delicious.

Our drawings were won by:

$5 drawings – Agnes Mockler and Vaneta Youngworth.

Quarters – Mary Lea Hennies, Ann Stewart, Jane Kugler, Mary Bartels, Arlys Mason, Rose Mart, and (thank you Rose for drawing my name) Pat Steckelberg.

As you can see, two of our guests were winners!

There was one table for Bridge with Arlys Mason (one of our guests) having high and Lorraine Brunick was low. It is always nice to see enough ladies for at least one table of bridge.

Dominoes – Today there were three tables.

Round 1 – Babe Hurowitz, Joyce Zimmerman, and Mary Bartels.

Round 2 – Karine Amundson, Joyce Zimmerman, and Mary Lea Hennies.

Round 3 – Anita White, Dori Ryan, and Agnes Mockler.

Total score – Karine Amundson, Joyce Zimmerman, and Mary Lea Hennies.

Some ladies were really on a roll with the dominoes!

Golf – We had five players today which was that much more fun. The game we played was Poker. Counted only the odd holes. I am not good at poker of any kind, but still had a lot of fun. Mary Lea won the bucks with four sevens. On #6 she was getting ready to come down on her down swing but the ball did not want her to hit it so just fell off the tee. Her reaction was great!

I (Pat Steckelberg) had a second Wednesday with pars on the par three holes. I have never done that before. It felt real good!

Vermillion 9-10 team looks to cap season

By Caleb Miller

While Legion and Teener teams compete for region championships this week, Vermillion fans can rest easy knowing the future looks bright for Vermillion baseball.

What started as a rain and snow filled spring has turned into a summer of great baseball for the Vermillion 9- and 10-year-old travel baseball team. They began their season with preparations for the DakotaDome Classic tournament in mid-March with a strong focus on drills and fundamentals. The month of May consisted of heavy practice schedule and a doubleheader sweep of the Yankton Reds. The first weekend in June the team then traveled to Humboldt for a day of grueling baseball. Due to weather and schedule changes the 9-10 were slated to play four straight games back to back. It was a gutsy performance in the 42-degree rainy weather.

Mid-June saw a Vermillion baseball invasion of Brandon Valley. The Brandon Valley Sunshine Tournament had the Vermillion 9-10 team, 11-12 team, and the 13-14 Teener Reds entered in each division. The weekend was one for the books as both the 9-10 and the Reds brought home championships. The 9-10's reach the title game with a 1 to 0 semi-final win over Tea and then won the tournament with a 12 to 5 come-from-behind win over Hills, Minnesota.

As the host team in the Vermillion tournament the 9-10s found themselves facing some tough competition against a Sioux City Thunder and Sioux Falls Travel team. After a loss to Sioux Falls and a win against Rock Valley the boys put on a very good demonstration of fundamental baseball but came up short 3-2 against the Sioux City Thunder in the conciliation championship.

Fourth of July weekend was time for a break and the team came together for a Saturday pool party and wiffle ball game. It was a great day for the team to build on their friendships and have some fun. The season ends with the VFW State Tournament in Sioux Falls on July 19, 20, and 21. The tournament features 16 teams from around the state with a championship round following two days of pool play. The 9-10 baseball roster includes Conner Saunders, Jack Kratz, Drew and Dylan Thelen, Luke Van Peursen, Logan Augustine, Nich Roob, Noah Gilbertson, Willis Robertson, Carter Mart, Jake Jensen and Charlie Ward.

13-14 battle through region tourney

By Caleb Miller

Playoff baseball has hit South Dakota as the 13-14 Teener Reds opened its region tournament this week in Irene. The Reds edged Beresford 5-3 in an extra inning affair in round one and followed it up with a throttling of Irene 15-1 in round two. The Teeners found themselves in extras again in game three, but lost this one 8-7 to Dakota Valley.

In the double elimination format, the Reds are down but not out. With a win Wednesday against Beresford, the squad can play its way back into the championship round on Thursday where they would need to beat Dakota Valley twice in a doubleheader.

As per Teener rules, the first and second place region teams advance to the State tournament. However, Vermillion hosts the state competition this year, so is guaranteed a spot regardless of region tournament outcomes.

Vermillion Reds, 5 – Beresford, 3

The Reds wasted no time capturing the excitement and energy of playoff baseball as they went into two extra innings on the tournament's first night. A sacrifice fly in the first inning by Carter Kratz scored Kyle Johnson to give the Reds an early 1-0 advantage.

Two innings later, Kyle Johnson and Cole Anderson led off with back-to-back singles setting the stage for another sacrifice fly for Kratz to score Johnson and a balk to score Anderson.

The 3-0 lead would not hold for long as Beresford answered in the fifth. Beresford used two singles and two errors to plate three runs off Reds starter Hunter Christopherson. With the game tied, Billy Mount relieved Christopherson.

The scored remained tied past its usual seven innings, and Vermillion
