

Fourth In Style

PHOTOS BY THOMAS HATZENBUHLER AND SHAUNA MARLETTE
Top Left: Every little boy's dream is to drive the fire truck and this little one got behind the wheel Saturday at Barstow Park (SM).
Middle Left: With bouncy houses, slides, fire hoses and more the children who came to Barstow Park had a blast during the celebration. Pictured is one little girl laughing her way down the slide (SM).
Bottom Left: The Vermillion Fire Department brought the smoke house to the park on Saturday and had volunteers lined up to show children how to escape a burning fire. Here several children are backing there way down the stairs to the exit in the midst of smoke (SM).
Top Right: Fireworks are always the main attraction on the fourth of July and this year was no different as a display sponsored by VCDC and Wal-Mart provided thrills (TH).
Middle Right: On Saturday the VFD brought out it's classic fire truck and had it on display for everyone to see (TH).
Bottom Right: Musical entertainment was part of the celebration on Saturday, pictured here the band performed throughout the afternoon (TH).

