

THE BLUFFS

Men's Senior Golf Fun League

Twenty seniors golfed at The Bluffs on Tuesday, June 11 at 9 a.m.

The team of Mo Marcotte, Richard Morse, Gene Iverson, and Alan Clem shot a 36. Richard Morse chipped in for a 45 yard birdie on #7.

Three teams shot 37 and the order of finish was decided by using the tie-breaker holes. Turk Pilker, Louie Fostvedt and Dick Burbach placed second. Louie Fostvedt made a 15-foot birdie putt on #6 and then a 18-foot birdie putt on #8. Dick Burbach chipped in for a birdie on #7.

Bob Solomon, Fred Savoie, and Guy Button placed third and the team of Ray Lynn, Ken Beringer, and Harlan Schott finished in fourth place.

Wednesday Evening Ladies League

W.E.L.L. held another round of play on June 5. This week the weather cooperated well, being cool and breezy, but not threatening rain at every turn. The better weather was reflected in some better golf as well (or, it could also be because we now have a few rounds under our belts).

As an example, Mary Gauer shot a 39 this week to score the low gross. Two women tied for having the low net score with a 32: Peggy Donnelly (44-12) and Jane Uhl (41-9). We also had our first reported birdies (not counting the now two flocks of goslings). Jane Uhl had a birdie on hole #8 while Pat Flanagan, celebrating her birthday 4 days early, had a birdie on #5. The group also celebrated Pat's birthday with a cake (chocolate, of course) and a card.

Spreading the golfing goodness around, Kathy Merrigan-Manning won the pin prize for longest putt. Taking home the money in the 50-50 drawing this week was Sheila Prosser.

15-16 Teeners capture first place at tourney

By Caleb Miller

The 15-16 Teener baseball team used strong pitching and stifling defense in the opening rounds of last weekend's "Bud" Greve Memorial Wood Bat Tournament in Wakefield, NE and followed it with an explosion of offense in the championship game en route to a first place finish.

Vermillion played two pool-play games against Lincoln Southwest Remax and Davenport-Edger before breaking to the championship round where they met the team from Wahoo, NE.

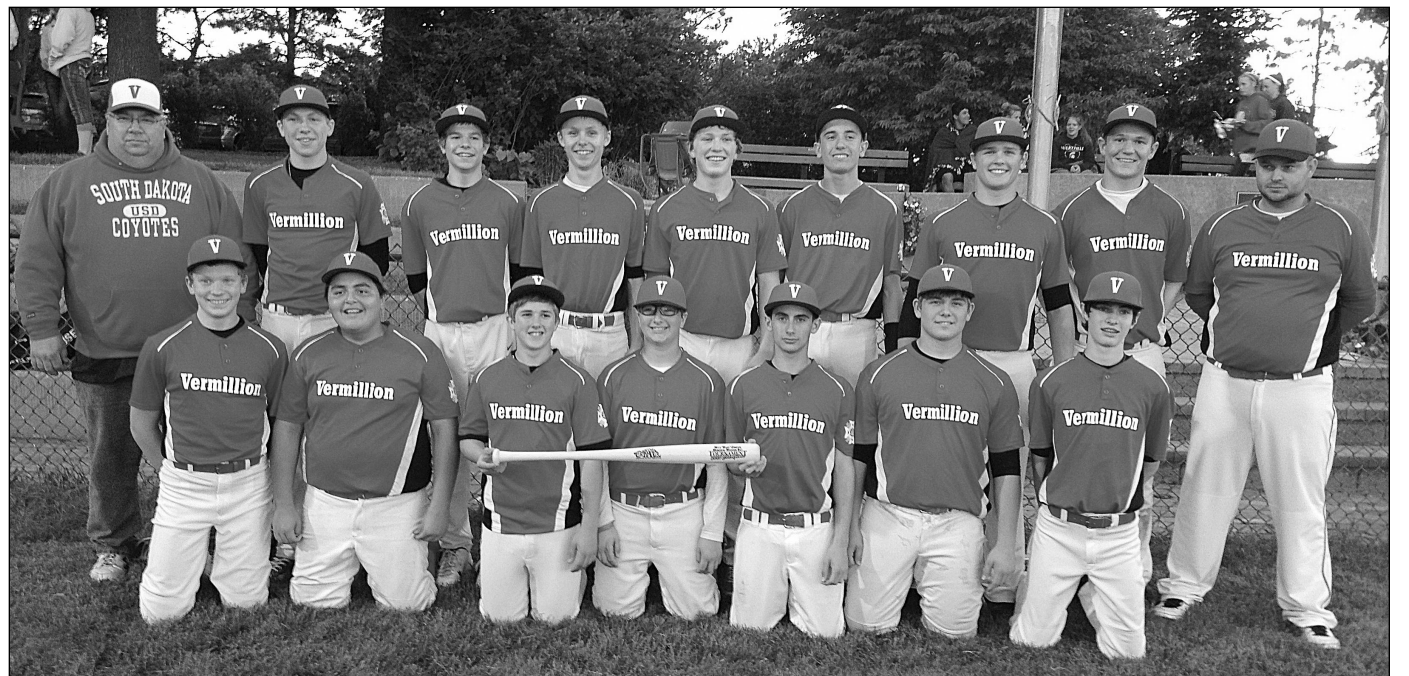

Jake Odens was the story game one against Remax Saturday afternoon, pitching all six innings and allowing no runs and only one hit. After two quick outs in the first inning, six consecutive Vermillion batters reached base, three coming around to score. This would be more than enough for Odens, who controlled the Remax lineup with seven strikeouts and only one runner past second base.

The Vermillion offense put the icing on the cake in the third when a two-out, bases loaded double by Joe Miller cleared the bases – scoring Odens, Brandon Mockler, and Matt Ouellette – and pushed the lead to 7-0.

Riding the momentum of game one, Vermillion jumped on top of Davenport-Edger Saturday night with two second-inning runs on singles by Ouellette, Wyatt Markee, Tyler Madsen, and Brett Hansen. But Mother Nature cooled the Vermillion bats when a rain delay caused the game to be suspended after two innings and resumed Sunday morning.

Davenport-Edger came out hot the next morning, scoring a run in the third off pitcher Markee and two more in the fourth off Jack Brown to take a 3-2 lead. Vermillion tied the game in the fifth when Regan Bye worked a lead-off walk and made his way around the bases on stolen bases and a single by Ethan James.

With the game still tied, the teams entered extra innings, but Davenport used two singles and a walk in the 7th frame to top Vermillion, 4-3.

Though Vermillion split the two, pool-play games, they advanced to the championship based on a tiebreaker of least runs allowed.

Ethan James took the ball for Vermillion Sunday night in a seven-inning battle with Wahoo for the tournament crown. The game seasawed in the early innings with Vermillion taking a 1-0 lead on a double by Brown in the top of the third, losing it 3-1 in the bottom, tying it up 3-3 on a triple by Madsen in the top of the fourth, and losing it again 4-3 in the bottom of the fourth.

But the bats came alive in a big way for Vermillion in the fifth. Bye was hit by a pitch to open the inning followed by base hits from six of the next seven batters including RBI singles by Weber and Markee and an RBI double by Miller. All told, the Teeners scored five runs in the inning, opening up an 8-4 lead they would not relinquish.

Insurance runs in the sixth and seventh pushed the Vermillion total to 13, and Odens returned to the mound in the final inning to secure a 13-6 thrashing of the Nebraskan competition.

There was no rest for the victors, who returned home from the tournament with back-to-back home games on Monday against Crofton and Tuesday against Hardington.

Crofton was no match for the Teeners and Regan Bye, who pitched a no-hitter in the 11-1 game that was ended after 5 innings due to the mercy rule. Bye controlled Crofton batters all night, retiring 10 on strikeouts. On the offensive side, Brown and Markee each had two hits and Miller scored three runs.

was silenced by a great pitching effort from Markee. But the Vermillion offense couldn't score a run, and the seven-inning game entered the bottom of the sixth with Hardington holding a 1-0 lead. But in the bottom of the sixth, Weber, Miller, and Odens all had RBI's to key a Vermillion rally that enabled them to jump on top 5-1 heading into the final inning.

However, the Hardington batters finally got to Markee in the seventh and plated four runs to tie the game before Brown relieved him. In the bottom of the inning, Brown started the rally with a single and Markee was granted a walk, setting the stage for Weber to play hero. With Brown standing on third and the Hardington infield drawn in, Weber chopped a grounder to the second baseman. Brown broke for the plate on contact and scored easily, winning the game in dramatic fashion.

Post 1 Vermillion wins 5 straight

By Caleb Miller

After losing three of five games, the Post 1 Vermillion club righted the ship and then some, rattling off five straight victories this week. The streak consisted of a road win at Tabor and home wins against Elk Point twice, Crofton, and Hardington, NE and improved the Post 1 season record to 8-3. Strong pitching was the key for Vermillion during the stretch as no team managed more than four runs.

Post 1 – 6, Tabor – 4

Collin Bertram gave Vermillion a strong start when the team traveled to rival Tabor for a nine-inning contest. Bertram picked up the win with his six-inning effort, striking out seven and allowing no runs.

Runs were hard to come by in the early innings before Post 1 broke through for three runs in the fourth. Though he was retired on a lineout, Tanner Anderson started the inning with a hard line drive, and the next four batters followed suit with four consecutive singles including a two-RBI rope off the bat of Nile Morecraft. Colin Olson, Peter Haught, and Joe Mazour each had a hit and scored a run in the inning that gave Vermillion the lead it would hold for the rest of the game.

Jayce Huska tripled to open the next inning and Chayse Meierkort capitalized on an error to reach base, both came in to score to increase the Post 1 lead to 5-0.

Things became interesting after Nathan Garrett relieved Bertram in the seventh. A combination of two hits, two walks, and a Vermillion error allowed the home team three runs to cut the lead to 5-3. But Garrett settled down, allowing just two hits and one run the rest of the way to nail down the save.

Post 1 – 10, Elk Point – 2

Joe Mazour took the mound last Friday for game one of a doubleheader with Elk Point.

Mazour surrendered hits to four of the first five batters and found himself in a 2-0 hole before fans could get settled into their seats. But this was the only noise the Elk Point offense would muster against Mazour, who flipped a switch after the rocky start. With the opening inning behind him, Mazour pitched a gem, throwing all six innings and allowing no more runs and just one more hit.
