Wednesday Morning Ladies Golf June 4, 2014

There were 19 ladies for luncheon, and thank you Maxine Rogers and Joyce Zimmerman for the three great-tasting desserts. Drawing winners were: $5 – June Wagner and Rhoda Grant. Quarters – Edith Nelson, Char Brunick, Anita White, Mary Lou Christopherson, June Wagner, Maxine Rogers and Brenda Chatham. Dominoes report (three tables): Round 1 – Babe Hurowitz, Sally Gilbertson and Joyce Zimmerman. Round 2 – Babe Hurowitz, Maxine Rogers and Vaneta Youngworth. Round 3 – Babe Hurowitz, Agnes Moeckler and Mary Lea Hennies. Total score – Barb Boone, Mary Lou Christopherson and Anita White. Golf report: We had the best morning so far for golfing. It is great have so many ladies coming out to join in our fun – nine today. We played Bingo, Bango, Bongo with no rough stuff and two or less putts. Darlene Engbrecht and Ann Stewart were the winners. A little tidbit – We had one very brave lady in my group. Mona Bye. She started using only two clubs (not counting her putter) only in the last three to four holes. Chipper and pitching wedge. Yes you read this right and she did great in my opinion. I am sure there were other wonderful tidbits or fun but this is the only one I witnessed. Come on out and join us for golfing, luncheon and/or dominoes. See you at the club. Pat Steckelberg Reporter

Fischbach inducted into SDATA Hall of Fame

University of South Dakota Head Athletic Trainer Bruce Fischbach was inducted into the South Dakota Athletic Trainers' Association (SDATA) Hall of Fame in a ceremony held Tuesday at Beef 'O' Brady's in Sioux Falls.

Fischbach has tirelessly served the healthcare needs of thousands of student-athletes at USD since 1987. He earned his bachelor's degree from University of Nebraska-Lincoln in 1984 and his master's degree from United States Sports Academy in 1991.

Outside of USD, Fischbach has spent time working with Special Olympics, minor league baseball, local youth athletics and athletes in the National Wheelchair Basketball Association (NWBA). Bruce has contributed considerably to the NWBA as a tournament director, conference commissioner and member of its board of directors. He has also served the Make-A-Wish Foundation as a wish granter and regional ambassador.

Fischbach has mentored and continues to provide guidance to many athletic trainers who began their careers as student and graduate assistant athletic trainers at USD. He directed the USD sports medicine program to its first College Athletic Management "Award of Excellence for Athletic Training Management".

Fischbach has served as president, vice president and secretary/treasurer for the SDATA and has been on the Mid America Athletic Trainers' Association's board of directors. Over the years, he has continually advocated for the athletic training profession.

Fellow inductees honored Tuesday included Dr. Jack Billion, Jim Emmerich, Rob Williams, James Booher, Keith Fitzpatrick and Kathy Courtney.

5 Coyotes named to academic all-league team

Five members of the University of South Dakota's track and field teams were named to The Summit League's Outdoor Track and Field Academic All-League teams in a league release on Friday. The teams were voted on by each member institution's faculty athletics representatives and sports information directors.

The Coyotes landed three on the men's team with Jeff Mettler, Brant Haase and Jeff O'Connell receiving the honors. Madison Mills and Katie Wetzstein were named to the women's team.

Mettler and Haase both made the men's academic all-league team for the second straight year and posted the only two 4.0 GPAs on the men's team. Mettler, who graduated last month with a degree in kinesiology/sports science, won the 3,000-meter steeplechase and the 5,000 at The Summit League Outdoor Championships last month. He also won the steeplechase at the Drake Relays in April.

Haase, a junior and health sciences/pre-pharmacy major, added a win in the 10,000 and a runner-up finish in the 5,000 at the league outdoor championships. He posted the league's top time in the 5,000 at 14 minutes, 18.92 seconds.

O'Connell received his first academic all-league honor after scoring in six events at the league championships and posting a 3.75 GPA as a physical education and coaching major. The junior won two league titles last month, winning the long jump and the 4x100.

Mills, a sophomore with a 3.70 GPA in pre-physical therapy and kinesiology/sports science, posted the nation's 19th-best pole vault mark of 13 feet, 9 1/4 inches this season. She won at the Drake Relays in April and placed second at the league outdoor championships.

Wetzstein, a sophomore in medical biology with a 3.93 GPA, scored in three events at the league championships. She was second in the 1,500, fourth in the 5,000 and fifth in the 800. She also added a win at the Sioux City Relays in the 1,500 during the season.

To be eligible for The Summit League Academic All-League team, a student-athlete must have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.30 (on a 4.0 scale), completed at least one full academic year at the current institution and participated in 50 percent of their team's competitions. The men's and women's outdoor track and field all-league teams are made up of the 10 student-athletes receiving the most votes with all ties standing.
