OBITUARIES

Charles Newton "Chuck" Meier

Meier

Charles Newton "Chuck" Meier, 86, was born on September 9, 1928, in White Lake, South Dakota at the onset of the Great Depression.

Meier was proud of the close family bonds developed during a hardscrabble childhood on the South Dakota prairie ("we did not know we were poor").

Jane Dahlman of Vermillion, South Dakota. Newlyweds Chuck and Helen moved to Brookings, South Dakota, where Chuck earned his Bachelor of Science in Chemistry from South Dakota State University in 1953.

Following an on-campus interview with the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, Chuck joined that firm at its headquarters in Akron, Ohio as a chemical engineer.

of product development, which required relocating his family overseas. He then returned to Akron to run the tire test division and the farm and agricultural tire programs.

Chuck turned his inquiring mind to genealogy, thoroughly researching and documenting his family's history, became active in the local Lutheran church, and dedicated himself to public service.

service of his community and of his neighbors and friends," Chuck served six terms as councilman on the Stow City Council.

Recently, in 2011, Chuck and Helen relocated from northern Ohio to Dirigo Pines Retirement Community in Orono, Maine, to be close to family.

early in life. A talented tenor, Chick enjoyed singing in church choirs, in barbershop quarters, at family events, or at the slightest provocation.

Graveside services were held at Bluff View Cemetery at 10:30 a.m., May 30, 2015 with military honors conducted by Vermillion V.F.W. Clay County Post #3061 & American Legion.
