David Otis Kniffen

David Otis Kniffen was born on May 17, 1960, at Lajes Field Air Force Base on Terceira Island in the Azores, Portugal, and he died on June 12, 2015, in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, as the result of a bicycling accident. He was 55 years old.

Growing up, David and his family lived in New Jersey, Ohio, and Arkansas as his father was a career Air Force officer. His family eventually settled in Vermillion, South Dakota, in 1977. He graduated from Vermillion High School in 1978.

David was the daredevil of the family, always the first to jump off a cliff into lakes on summer vacations, climb the highest trees, bike down the steepest hills, and he was never afraid to approach a stranger. He was a constant source of worry for his parents and siblings but he loved his family fiercely and always strove for family harmony.

When his mother developed Alzheimer's disease, David volunteered to become her caretaker. With David's help, his father was able to keep her at home for several more years. It was a wonderful gift to his family and a testament to David's kind-hearted #### nature.

David was a skilled guitarist and a mechanical genius. He loved tearing apart computers and reassembling them, and he feared no computer virus. In his younger years he was a motorcycle enthusiast. More recently his favorite mode of transportation was his e-bike.
