THANK YOU 🦚

Sickness and death has taken our Mom, Grandma, and Great Grandma and she is missed by all of us. But so many of you have helped us through this passage.

We are so grateful for phone calls, hugs, memories shared, home and hospital visits, memorials, cards, prayers, food, flowers and laughter.

Thank you, Dr. Searcy, hospital staff, OT and PT for the great care you provided.

Special thanks to her Westreville friends and neighbors and to her Pleasant Valley Lutheran family – Pastor Anna, ushers, musicians and WELCA.

It has been a true celebration of life and thank you for your being a part of that celebration.

Reasons to VOTE 'NO' on the Daycare Ordinance

Cost Increase to the Parents

Letting Strangers Into Daycares During Mandatory Inspections

Cost to the City, or tax to the people? Who is funding the mandatory inspections?

Limited Openings - If just 5 providers quit due to over-regulation, that's 50-60 children left without daycare and limited accommodations are currently available in Vermillion including centers.

The State Doesn't Require Registration, Why Should the City? Parents already make the decision if they want a state licensed daycare.

As a parent, grandparent, caregiver, provider or citizen of Vermillion, this affects you too! Please VOTE 'NO' on June 30, 2015 to not adopt the daycare ordinance. City Registered Daycare Does Not Guarantee

Better Care or Safety!!
