USD Picks Up CSU Transfer Hurst

BY JEREMY HOECK
jeremy.hoeck@yankton.net

Carlton Hurst knew that if he chose another Division I school, he would have to sit out the next season. So why not, he thought, use the opportunity to play for a coach he knew would push him.

That ultimately led Hurst, who spent two seasons at Colorado State, to select the University of South Dakota and head coach Craig Smith.

Hurst, a 6-foot-3 guard originally from Michigan but a Colorado high school graduate, committed last week to come to USD. His transfer was officially announced Tuesday by Smith, who had recruited Hurst out of a suburban Denver high school when Smith was an assistant coach at Colorado State.

"He had that much faith in me and my abilities, so it was easier to make the decision," Hurst said by phone Tuesday night.

Hurst, the fourth D-I transfer to choose USD over the off-season, will have to sit out the 2015-16 season but will then have two seasons of eligibility for the Coyotes.

"Carlton is a fantastic person who embodies what our program is about," Smith said in the release. "He is a great competitor and an electric athlete who will impact the game on both sides of the ball."

Still, despite his previous D-I experience (which includes playing in 61 of 66 games in two seasons at Colorado State), Hurst had to trust what Smith was telling him – knowing that he'd have to miss one season as a redshirt before returning to action.

"I like what he's doing," Hurst said. "He's still developing players and the program, and I just felt like I wanted to be part of that."

So too have a number of other transfers.

Hurst will join fellow newcomers Trey Dickerson (Iowa) and Matt Mooney (Air Force) as transfers who will have sit out the 2015-16 season. The fourth D-I transfer, Shy McClelland (Detroit), will be immediately eligible for the Coyotes next season.

They are joined on the roster by high school additions Tyler Hagedorn (Norfolk, Nebraska), Tyler Borchers (LeMars, Iowa) and Dan Jech (Rochester, Minnesota).

In the case of Hurst, he had been leaning toward USD and Texas Southern, but ultimately chose USD based on the opportunity to help a new-look D-I program – the small-school feel didn't hurt either, Hurst joked.

"I was mainly looking for a place I felt comfortable, and could get a solid opportunity," he said. "It didn't necessarily matter what the size of the town was, I just wanted a place where I felt like I could grow as a person."
