Training for 4-H judges set for April in Vermillion, Sioux Falls

The South Dakota Cooperative Extension Service will host training for anyone who would like to serve as a judge for 4-H competitions.

The training sessions are set for April 20 in Sioux Falls and April 22 in Vermillion. Both sessions will take place from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. The Sioux Falls session takes place at the Minnehaha County Extension office, 220 W. Sixth St., and the Vermillion training will be at the Clay County Extension office, 515 High St.

Pre-registration is required before April 15. To secure your spot in the training, call Extension 4-H/Youth Development Educator Karen Beranek at 605-425-2242 or e-mail her at Karen.Beranek@sdstate.edu.

Participants need not have 4-H experience to attend training. The sessions will cover the process and criteria used by judges at 4-H Achievement Days and the South Dakota State Fair. The training is helpful for 4-H club leaders, junior leaders, and others. Many counties often seek judges to help with local events.

Training will discuss the judging process of foods and nutrition, child development, home environment, photography, the science, engineering, and technology (SET) program, clothing and fashion revue, and wood, wood science, and welding topics. Participants will choose their "top two" choices and receive instruction in those areas during the three-hour sessions.

You also can ask for more information about these training sessions at your county Extension office.
