'Hay Country Jamboree' Saturdav at Gavville Hall

Gayville Hall presents the first "Hay Country Jamboree" of its new season on Saturday, March 31, at 8 p.m. in Gayville.

Jamboree regulars, including country music hosts John and Susan McNeill, banjo player and funnyman Daniel Kilbride, fiddler Owen DeJong, and singer-guitarist Nick Schwebach, will be joined by Iowa's "Singing Farmer," Ervin Pickhinke.

Normally staged the first Saturday of every month April through November, Jamborees always feature three-or-more musical acts on stage together trading old-time tunes, country, bluegrass, and humor by turn, according to Gayville Hall proprietor Doug Sharples.

The shows are two hours long, including a short intermission midway, and are presented in an alcohol-andsmoke free setting.

The music hall is located at 502 Washington Street in Gayville. Call 605-267-2859.

John and Susan McNeill and Daniel Kilbride lead the first "Hay Country Jamboree" of Gayville Hall's new season on Saturday, March 31, at 8 p.m. in Gayville.

Teens interested in law enforcement sought for Youth Training Academy

The South Dakota Highway Patrol and the American Legion of the Highway Patrol. of South Dakota are sponsoring a Youth Trooper Academy in Pierre at the South Dakota Law Enforcement Training Center on June 25-29.

The academy is open to 16and 17-year-old male and female students entering their senior year of high school. Each candidate must be in good academic standing with their school and possess a valid South Dakota driver license. The program is open to all senior students, regardless of race, color, gender, religion or national origin.

"This program is an intensive, one-week learning experience that will be mentally and physically demanding," said Col. Craig Price, superintendent Candidates should be highly motivated, of good moral and ethical character, and have an interest in a career in law enforcement."

Price also wants potential candidates to know that the Youth Trooper Academy utilizes a paramilitary approach to training, and discipline is strict.

The application deadline is April 20 with space limited to 16 students from across South

Successful candidates are sponsored by their local American Legion Post to attend the academy free of charge.
