While in college, she met her future husband, Marvin Walz, at a dance in Wakonda. While he served his country in Korea, Carol worked for Hassenstein Steel Co. of Sioux Falls, SD. They were married at First Lutheran Church in Wakonda on June 26, 1959 while Marvin was home on leave. After their honeymoon, the couple moved to Alexandria, VA where Marvin was stationed at Ft. She also taught them how to make pies and they made a yearly event of it. Once she became a Grandma, she took the grandchildren on hikes in the pasture, adventures around the farm, and camping to Union Grove State Park. She dearly loved her grandchildren and always made sure they had a can of cookies to take back to college or home with them.

Carol was a member of the Extension Club, the PV WELCA, the Cleophus Club (which she referred to as the Do-Nothing Club), and the Wakonda American Legion Auxiliary. She worked part-time at the Vermillion Vet Clinic and in 1975 became the Bookkeeper at Davis Drug. She retired in February of 2011 and a few days later began her 4 year battle with Melanoma.
