GO, COYOTES, GO!

Students at Jolley Elementary School took time out on Tuesday to gather and cheer on the University of South Dakota women's basketball team. The USD Coyotes played South Dakota State in the Summit League Championship Game for an automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament which begins next week (see related story on 7A). The students and the university's athletic department have developed quite the bond over the past few years due to many joint projects they've worked on together. That was evident as these youngsters put their efforts into cheering on the USD women to a hoped for ---victory.

STARTING YOUNG

Well some young people really want to get a head start on the competition. This little, unidentified young lady (left) grabbed some pompons and decided to help out the Vermillion High School Dance Inferno team with a little cheer during last week's boys' basketball Region 4A game between the host Tanagers and Canton. Her talents caught the eye of Inferno member Shantel French.
