

Wakonda's Alsdorf to Serve Church Mission in El Salvador

SIoux CITY, Iowa – A young woman who has lived and worked in the Siouxland area for most of her life is heading to El Salvador to serve a mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Alexandria Rene Alsdorf, 22, of Wakonda, South Dakota, will enter the missionary training center in Guatemala for Spanish language training later this month and will then travel to El Salvador to serve in the El Salvador San Salvador West Belize Mission. The mission covers West San Salvador, all of Belize, plus the islands associated with El Salvador. Alsdorf is a 2011 graduate of Irene-Wakonda High School, and has attended the University of South Dakota. She is a member of the Vermillion Branch of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the Sioux City Stake of the church. For the past 3 years she has worked at the Walmart in Vermillion and has been saving up for her mission. She and her family and friends will pay for her mission. Alsdorf decided she wanted to serve a mission when she was 11 years old and learned that her older brother, Allen, then 17, had decided to serve. Allen Alsdorf subsequently served a 2-year, Spanish-speaking mission in Los Angeles, California. Her brother Adam Alsdorf has also served in Las Vegas, Nevada. "I want to serve as a missionary because I want to learn, teach, serve, and inspire others," Alex Alsdorf said. "I want to be more culturally aware of the rest of the world, and to give people the opportunity to have the gospel of Jesus Christ in their lives." Alsdorf also hopes to give humanitarian service to those in poverty in El Salvador—something for which the church is known internationally. "With poverty there is not a lot of hope," Alsdorf said. "The gospel strengthens people and gives them hope and purpose, and something to look forward to. I want to help them look upward toward the light."

Vermillion American Legion Post No. 1 and Legion Auxiliary announce the selection of delegates for Boys & Girls State 2015. Girls chosen to represent Vermillion are Katie Brockvelt, Elizabeth Butler, Morgan Fuller, Sydney Furry, Anna Hackemer, Katie Kost, Kylee Retzluff, Kayla Stammer. The boys chosen are Kaleb Blue, Blake Gilkyson, Cody Kronaizl, Alec Leber, Tristan Meadows, Jonathan Rosales, Matt Ouellette, Paul Schwasinger. Jeremiah Johnson is being sponsored by the Alsen Legion. These young people have demonstrated very definite leadership skills in their school and community activities and each has earned a scholastic ranking that places them in the upper third of their class. "During the selection process, all delegates demonstrated outstanding qualifications in character, honesty, service, and initiative," said Ray Hofman, Legion Americanism Officer, "and American Legion Post #1 and Legion Auxiliary are proud to have these young people represent Vermillion at the 2015 Boys & Girls State Session." American Legion Boys & Girls State is among the most respected and selective educational programs of government instruction for high school students. It is a participatory program where each participant becomes a part of the operation of his local, county, and state government. Boys & Girls State has been a program of the American Legion & Auxiliary since 1935. South Dakota Boys & Girls State will run from June 1 to June 6, 2015 and will be held on the campus of Northern State University for the boys and University of South Dakota for the girls. Donations from the Civic Council, Eagles Club, Knights of Columbus, Lions, Rotary, Rebekah Lodge, Odd Fellows Lodge, Masons, Incentive Lodge and the VFW have helped sponsor the students.
