The classic serves as a chance for young baseball athletes from the region to get in a bit of playing time before their regular seasons start later this spring. The classic attracted over 30 teams in two divisions, ages 9-10, and ages 11-12.

Victory eludes Tanager tennis team thus far

With the end of the high school boys tennis season only two weeks away, Vermillion's and other schools' tennis players finally were able to break into the lousy spring weather with some genuine competition.

The Tanagers squeezed five dual matches into the three-day period ending Saturday. They will be home today (Friday) against Sioux City East and next Thursday will be at Sioux Falls Lincoln. That will leave only the state tournament in Sioux Falls on May 20-21 to suddenly end the season.

Vermillion dropped 9-0 duals to Mitchell on Thursday and to Sioux Falls Roosevelt on Friday in advance of a quadrangular in Brookings on Saturday. At the latter event the Tanagers lost to Brandon Valley, 9-0, and dropped 6-3 decisions to Brookings and Milbank, but Coach Dan Hanson said it was "a good day despite the 40 MPH winds." The coach said his boys are "really showing improvement" and that this is a good time of the year for that.

Camden Raizola and Tyler Osborne won singles matches, and Ethan Druin and David Day won a doubles match against Brookings. Vermillion's three points against Milbank came from Druin and Osborne on the singles side and from the doubles team of James May and Osborne.

BLUFFS BULLETIN

WELL KICKS OFF WITH FUN NIGHT

Another season kicked off Wednesday night, April 27 for the Wednesday Evening Ladies League or WELL, with Fun Night. The weather didn't cooperate with our plans for golf. It was very windy, which we can put up with, but then the rain began and cut our golf short.

Four ladies played three holes and four played five holes before heading into the clubhouse for a raucous game of cards. Darlis LaBahn spoke for all of us when she said, "It is great to be out golfing again."

Looking forward to league play starting next week. All are welcome to join us.
