Tennis season nearing end

By Parker Knox
Sportswriter

With the state tournament suddenly only two weeks away, the Vermillion High boys tennis team faces three more regular-season calendar dates, needing desperately to avoid any more bad weather.

The Tanagers, after playing at Yankton last night (Thursday), are home this afternoon in a 4 p.m. dual against Sioux City East. Next Thursday they go to Sioux Falls Lincoln. The pre-state tourney schedule concludes a week from Saturday in duals in Madison against St. Thomas More and Milbank.

Last week Vermillion fell to Sioux Falls Roosevelt by a 9-0 count. In singles play at No. 1, Will Card lost 6-0, 6-0. David Day at No. 2 dropped his match by 6-1, 6-0. Jacob Ford played the No. 3 singles match and lost 6-2, 6-1.

Kevin Helenurm lost 6-4, 6-1 at No. 4, followed by Mark Helenurm in a 7-5, 6-3 loss. Joe Swanson at No. 6 lost 6-2, 6-4.

In doubles play against the Rough Riders, the Tanagers did win a pair of games. Day and Kevin Helenurm lost at No. 1 doubles 6-0, 6-0. At No. 2 Card and Ford won their opening set 6-4 before losing 6-0, 6-4. At No. 3 Mark Helenurm and Swanson won their second set 6-3 after losing the opener 6-3 but lost the decisive third set 6-2.

VHS to present 'Wiley and the Hairy Man'

Vermillion High School students are putting their creativity to work in the upcoming production of the magical children's fantasy, "Wiley and the Hairy Man." The play is an adaptation of a Southern folk tale in which a child, with the help of a conjuring mammy and faithful dog, outwits the villain of the swamp and, as a result, finds inner strength. With the help of puppetry, lighting effects, and a cast of imaginative actors, the VHS stage is transformed into a swampy adventure land.

Show times are 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, May 4, 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, May 5 and 7:30 p.m. on Monday, May 6. Admission is $5 for adults, $3 for students and senior citizens, and free to those with Vermillion School District activity cards. Tickets are available at the door.
