then back to jail.

TUESDAY, APRIL 21 8:36 a.m. - A woman received a fraudulent phone call from a man reporting to be with the IRS threatening that she was going to go to prison for tax evasion. The woman did not disclose any of her financial records but wished to document the incident.

12:56 p.m. - An inmate was transported to the medical clinic for a scheduled appointment. 2:54 p.m. - A deputy transported an inmate to the medical clinic for an appointment and then back to the jail. 5:22 p.m. - A motorist reported a large piece of debris on Highway 50. A deputy searched the area but did not locate any debris on the roadway. 5:34 p.m. - A Wakonda resident reported that her ex-boyfriend damaged property in their house prior to them breaking off their relationship. The caller wanted monetary compensation for the damage. The incident is under investigation.

7:19 p.m. - A deputy located several calves in the road while patrolling in rural Wakonda. The owner was notified and the calves were removed from the roadway.

7:59 p.m. - A rural resident reported seeing a suspicious vehicle parked in a field approach for an extended period of time. A deputy responded and discovered that the vehicle had left the area. The deputy patrolled the area but did not locate anything out of the ordinary.

WÉDNESDAY, APRIL 22

8:09 a.m. - A caller reported that a Burbank resident was dumping ashes from his wood burning stove onto the roadway. A deputy spoke with the man and informed him that disposing of ashes in that matter was illegal The man apologized and agreed to find an alternative way to dispose of the ashes. 8:38 p.m. - A rural resident reported hearing an explosion from her neighbors controlled burn. A deputy responded to the residence and spoke with the land owner. The deputy was unable to determine the source of the explosion. The report has been forwarded to the SD Department of Environment and Natural Resources, who manages air quality guidelines for open burning, to review the case for any potential ed an inmate from the Sac County Jail in Sac City, Iowa to the Clay County Jail on an outstanding Clay County warrant. 9:23 a.m. - A deputy transported an inmate to the medical clinic for a scheduled appointment and then back to the jail. 3:00 p.m. - An inmate at the jail reported that money had been stolen by another inmate from inside his cell. A deputy is investigating the incident. 3:28 p.m. - A deputy transported an inmate to the medical clinic for a scheduled appointment.

6:33 p.m. - Units from the Sheriff's Office, the Vermillion Police Department, and the Highway Patrol, as well as fire and ambulance personal, responded to an accident with injuries on the Highway 50 Bypass.

9:28 p.m. - A man reported witnessing a vehicle traveling 25 MPH on Highway 50. The caller was concerned that the driver may be having mechanical problems. A deputy patrolled the area and was unable to locate the vehicle.

FRIDAY, APRIL 24 12:38 a.m. - A motorist ran out of gasoline on Highway 50. A deputy checked on the man and discovered that the caller's son was on his way with a gas can to get the vehicle running again. After speaking with the driver and making sure he did not need any further assistance the deputy returned to service.

SATURDAY, APRIL 25
12:42 a.m. - A Wakonda resident called the Sheriff's Office with a civil complaint about a former boyfriend. A deputy spoke with the woman and advised her that she would need to contact a civil attorney for guidance. 12:43 p.m. - A deputy assisted the Vermillion Police Department with a dispute involving two roommates. Officers mediated the situation and kept the peace until an agreement was reached between the parties. 6:55 p.m. - Deputies arrested
