

Memorial Day Celebration Planned

On May 25 the Union County Historical Society will host a Memorial Day celebration at the Union County Museum located at 707 W. Main St. in Elk Point.

The main feature will be the South Dakota's Fallen Hero's traveling display.

A patriotic program will begin at noon with Joy Hemmingson as vocalist followed by a Civil War presentation by Phillip Peterson.

The museum will be open during this event from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. A free offering meal will be served from 11:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. consisting of taverns, beans, chips, rhubarb crisp, cookies and a drink.

Please be sure to attend this event as there are now many items have been added to the museums displays inside the main house and in the north display barn.

Due to limited parking, please park at the Immanuel Lutheran Church parking lot, just east of the museum, and you will be transported to the museum grounds. Those with disabilities will be allowed to park near the museum.

Be sure to attend this event as we will be honoring those that have served years ago up until present.
