

OBITUARIES

Lyle A. Moritz

Lyle A. Moritz

Lyle A. Moritz, 47-year resident of Azusa, CA, passed away Saturday at his home with his family by his side. Lyle and his wife Anne, both originally from Vermillion, relocated to Azusa in 1962. Lyle joined the Azusa Police Department where he was a patrolman, dispatcher and detective for 14 years.

During his law enforcement career he enjoyed buying real estate "fixer uppers." Lyle designed and built their family home and after his departure from the police department he began a 32-year career in the building industry.

Lyle obtained his General & Engineering Contractors License and went on to build homes in Azusa and the surrounding communities in addition to designing and building homes for his three children.

Lyle was honorably discharged from the U. S. Army after serving his country in the Korean War. He continued to serve as an Azusa Planning Commissioner, Golden Days Parade Chairman, Honored Citizen, President of the Azusa City Employees Federal Credit Union and a member of the Azusa Lions Club. His generosity also extended to the Azusa Chamber of Commerce, the Kids Come First Golf Tournaments and St. Frances of Rome Parish and School.

Family time was important to Lyle. The family always gathered for dinner every night to talk about their day. Often times this included planning the next fishing, boating, camping or hunting trip. Several friends have said what an impact Lyle had on them. His simple approach to life, the value of working hard and building character is what made them what they are today.

Lyle's family includes his wife, Anne of 47 years; daughter, Diane and husband Keith Chagnon; sons, David and Douglas; and grandson, Brian Chagnon.

The family requests in lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the St. Frances of Rome Library (C/O Diane Chagnon, 409 E. 10th St., Azusa, CA 91702). We have all learned something from Lyle and this is our way of paying tribute to him for all he taught us.

Merle LaVern Macy

Merle LaVern Macy

Merle LaVern Macy, 89, of Yankton, formerly of Burbank, passed away peacefully surrounded by family on Friday, Nov. 6, 2009, at Avera Yankton Care Center in Yankton.

Merle was born on Nov. 25, 1919 to Arthur and Laverne (Cusick) Macy. A graduate of Vermillion High School, Merle served in the US Army, Battery E 147th Field Artillery and was honorably discharged as a staff sergeant after five years of service. While serving at Ft. Lewis, CA, he met his bride of 66 years, Marjorie Hilker in Aberdeen, WA. He returned with Marge to Burbank to farm until he retired.

Merle was an artist, teaching himself to paint in oils, carve delicate flowers, birds, and characters, and to create flowers from seed pods, and any other minute gifts of nature that he thought would enhance his creation. He was an engineer, taking a diamond willow stick, bark and all, and crafting it into a beautiful cane, a door stop, or anything else that size would allow. He enjoyed giving his creations away to his friends and relatives. He and Marge were members of the Good Sam Club in Vermillion and spent 25 years wintering in Arizona.

Merle is preceded in death by his parents, Arthur and Laverne; three sisters, Helen Macy, Phyllis Macy and Arliss (Eklund) Walters.

Merle is survived by his wife of 66 years, Marge; daughters, Cleo (Loren) Anderson of Yankton, and Carol (Mike) Engh of Ripon, WI; sons, Dave (Janet) Macy of Vermillion, and Dale (Sue) Macy of Aberdeen; eight grandchildren, Wade (Jackie) Mount, Beth (Mark) Bottolfsen, Dana (Paul) Winslow, Mike Macy, Tim Engh, Steven Engh, Erin (Dan) Lacher, and Marc (Amy) Macy; nine great-grandchildren; and a brother, Kent Macy of Prescott AZ.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 10, 2009 at Concordia Lutheran Church, Vermillion with Rev. Samuel Needham officiating. Visitation was from 5 to 7 p.m. on Monday, Nov. 9, 2009 at Iverson-Siecke-Kober Funeral Home, Vermillion, with a prayer service at 7 p.m. Visitation resumed one hour prior to the funeral service on Tuesday at the church.

Condolences may be sent online to www.koberfuneralhome.com

Debra Lynn Palmer

Debra Lynn Palmer, 56, of Vermillion, died Thursday, Nov. 5, 2009, at her residence.

Debra was born Oct. 26, 1953 in Colorado Springs, CO to Kenneth and Doris (Sanders) Palmer. Debra was raised and attended school in Sioux Falls, graduating from Lincoln High School and receiving her bachelors in teaching from Augustana College. She taught in Clear Lake and Winner, before working for Target Corporation for over 20 years.

Debra was a loving sister, aunt and dear friend to so many, she will be greatly missed.

Debra was an avid outdoors person, bird lover and traveler; she had published pictures and an article in the South Dakota Magazine, and was a member of the South Dakota Ornithologists Union. Deb worked for the past few years with the South Dakota Osprey Re-introduction at Yankton through the Corps of Engineers.

She is survived by her two sisters, Pam Palmer of Sioux Falls, and Dianne (Bob) Cooper of Huntington Beach, CA. She is also survived by a niece, Amanda Lebrecht of Tustin, CA; stepmother Judy Palmer of Hemet, CA; four uncles, Mutt, Bill, Bob and Greg; and three aunts, Elenor, Rita and Penny; and several cousins.

A celebration of her life will be held at a later date.
