Thank you!

As I put away the campaign from the last several months I want to thank the voters of Turner and Clay counties for your willingness to participate in the process. Running for the House of Representatives in District 17 has been a great experience. I appreciate every conversation that I was able to have, all the voters I was able to meet, all of you that were willing to open your door to me. Thanks especially to all of you who encouraged me. You gave me a special gift that made all the work worth it. I gained so much in this campaign even though I did not win a seat in the House. I learned so much about the people and needs of this district and of South Dakota. I am a better person for it and certainly more grateful. So thank you for your support, your vote and your participation. Stay involved and let's make this a better place to live.
