

Don't Let Anyone Dull Your Sparkle

Anyone who goes to a University of South Dakota football game will notice a very talented baton twirler.

USD Junior, Kristina Zalud has the flexibility of a gymnast, the grace of a dancer and incredible hand-eye coordination. Her performance always has the crowd in awe.

But with talent comes practice.

Zalud said she got hooked on twirling when she was just six-years-old.

"There was a girl who twirled that went to USD", Zalud said. "I was probably her biggest fan. I absolutely adored her."

Zalud started out taking lessons from her role-model. Her
