

in a Christmas Paradise

Carol and Dennis Breck live in a beautiful home on the bluffs west of Yankton overlooking Lewis & Clark Lake and every year about this time they transform their private oasis into a Christmas paradise.

The Brecks have collected hundreds of wonderful Christmas items including Santa figurines of every size and form imaginable.

When you walk into their home you are greeted by hundreds of familiar faces - Santa Claus's faces. He is smiling, laughing, carrying a Christmas tree, dancing, smoking a pipe. There are Santas in miniature, almost life-size Santas, cookie jar Santas, portraits of Santa.

Carol said the couple has been collecting Santa figurines for years and enjoys finding Santas from different
