

This particular year the Brecks decorated their tree and table in a nautical theme — a common theme throughout their home. Their daughter created the table decorations, greenery and wreaths that adorn their home. The pieces feature the classic pinecones, evergreen sprays, gold and blue Christmas ornaments and holly berries. What makes them completely unique is the addition of pearls, seashells and starfish. Their Christmas tree even features a swatch of netting reminiscent of fishing nets.