American Legion Commander Expresses 'Great Disappointment' At Plans To Close Hot Springs VA Hospital

WASHINGTON – American Legion National Commander Dale Barnett said the recent Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) recommending the closure of a popular and historic veterans hospital in Hot Springs, S.D., “sends exactly the wrong message” to veterans needing essential health-care services but often opting to forgo treatment.

“A veteran might not make the effort to travel all the way to Rapid City,” Barnett pointed out. “The Hot Springs and surrounding community rely on the VA Medical Center, which is why delegates at The American Legion National Convention in Baltimore last summer unanimously passed a resolution reaffirming its support for the VA Medical Center and residential rehabilitation services there.”

The resolution also calls for the creation of a Center of Excellence for the treatment of post-traumatic stress, substance abuse and homelessness prevention at the VA campus in Hot Springs. “While the hospital closure would be a blow to veterans in the region, we hope that VA plans to mitigate this pain by constructing a state-of-the-art Community Based Outpatient Clinic (CBOC), so it can still provide some services to veterans in the area,” Barnett said.

The released EIS, which is still a draft, is subject to a public comment period prior to a final decision by VA Secretary Robert McDonald. The comment period is until Jan. 5, 2016. Barnett is encouraging American Legion Family members and other interested parties to submit their comments online or through regular mail. Public comments can be mailed to: Staff Assistant of the Director, VA Black Hills Health Care System, 113 Comanche Road, Fort Meade, S.D. 57741. Reference to “BHHCS Reconfiguration Draft EIS” should be included on the envelope.

Online comments should be sent to vablackhillsfuture@va.gov.

With a current membership of 2.2 million wartime veterans, The American Legion was founded in 1919 on the four pillars of a strong national security, veterans affairs, Americanism, and youth programs. Legionnaires work for the betterment of their communities through nearly 14,000 posts across the nation.

Elks Scholarships Available

Area high school seniors who plan to further their education after graduation should be aware that Elks National Foundation scholarship applications are now available at <http://www.elks.org/enf/scholars>. Each year $3.74 million in college and vocational education scholarships are awarded through three scholarship programs made available through the Elks National Foundation. Only the federal government provides more money for college and vocational educational scholarships than does the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

These three options available on the website:

- Most Valuable Student – for any high school seniors who are U. S. citizens;
- Legacy Awards – for children and grandchildren of Elks members; and
- Emergency Educational Grants – for children of deceased or totally disabled Elks.

The Most Valuable Student Scholarship application will be found on the internet at www.elks.org. The application must be printed out and submitted to the Elks Lodge nearest to the applicant's home by December 4, 2015. Each year Yankton Elks Lodge awards six scholarships, three male and three female, from among local applications submitted to the local lodge from throughout the Yankton area. These winners each receive $300. Their applications are then submitted to the South Dakota Elks Association scholarship committee for further review for possible state and national scholarship awards. Last year a student from Verdigre, Ne., was selected a local winner and subsequently earned a $4,000 scholarship from the Elks National Foundation as a result of the state judging process.

Funds for the scholarships, $3.7 million, are provided through the Elks National Foundation, the philanthropic arm of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. Members of the Elks donate to the foundation which never spends the donations but rather invests all donated funds and only the interest earned on the endowment is used to fund activities including scholarships, Hoop Shoot contests for boys and girls 8-13 years of age (as many as 1.3 million participants in 2013) and Veterans Service projects among others. To learn more about the scholarship opportunities or the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, please contact Steven Pietila, 605-760-4916.
