

A sampling of photographs from the schools of Clay County from past years (counterclockwise from top): Students pose for a class picture outside Elmwood School; Star Prairie School building; Dalesburg School building; Vermillion High School — sometime after 1921; Science Hall at USD; and students pose for a photograph at East Side School. (Photos courtesy of the W.H. Over Museum and the Clay County Historical Society)

