VHS class of 1952 hosts reunion

The Vermillion High School Class of 1952 celebrated its 60th class reunion on Sept. 14-15. There were 18 class members attending the reunion, along with several spouses. On Friday night, they attended the homecoming football game in the DakotaDome and afterwards spent some time socializing at the Prairie Inn.

On Saturday, a noon luncheon was held at the Spink Café and a Saturday evening banquet was held at the Valiant Vineyards in Vermillion. Marion Kryger served as MC and all classmates were asked to give an update of their lives since the last reunion. Some of our classmates were unable to attend because of health reasons but wrote letters that were read at the reunion. Letters and any updates were sent to everyone so they would feel a part of the gathering.

Susan Osborn and Friends at Gayville Hall Oct. 27

The SD Friends of Traditional Music presents "Susan Osborn and Friends: A Musical Reunion" on Saturday, Oct. 27, at 8 p.m. at Gayville Hall in Gayville.

Osborn is an international star from Orcas Island, Washington, who cut her musical teeth in the 1970s in the South Dakota bands Blueberry Buckle, Rosewater, and Red Willow.

The concert reunites her with several accomplished bandmates from those bands - Kenny Putnam, Boyd Bristow, and Eddie Dunn - in addition to her longtime friend, guitarist Bill Lauf of Connecticut.

Osborn's rise to stardom began after she left South Dakota for New York City, where she became the lead singer of the Paul Winter Consort from 1978 to 1985, recording acclaimed albums and touring extensively throughout the United States and Europe.

In 1991, she traveled as a solo artist to Japan, where she became a star after recording an album of Japanese folk melodies with English lyrics that won the Japanese equivalent of the Grammy award. She has made over fifty trips to Japan, was the subject of a two-hour Japanese TV special about her life, and has recorded a dozen more recordings for the Japanese market, including CDs of songs from Disney films and love songs from the 1960s, as well as a "best of Susan Osborn" CD.

Osborn has performed at the United Nations, the Winter Olympics, the Berlin Wall, and in The Hague, Kyoto, Hiroshima and post-9/11 New York at memorial and peace ceremonies. She performed with Skitch Henderson and the New York Pops Orchestra, with the Hollywood Bowl Orchestra, and has been heard in Toyota commercials and on film soundtracks.

Fiddler Kenny Putnam of Rapid City was a member of the Red Willow Band for six years and later toured and recorded with Roy Clark for over seven years, appearing on The Grand Ol' Opry, on TV's Hee Haw regularly, and on The Tonight Show and many other programs. He has performed in 48 states, Canada, Bulgaria and the Soviet Union.
