

VERMILLION POLICE REPORTS

Sunday, Oct. 12
 • 5 a.m. — Bike Officers saw a man walking down the sidewalk drinking from a beer can. They contacted the man who was underage. He was cited.
 • 6 a.m. — Bike Officers contacted a man walking down the public street drinking from a beer. He was underage and complained to the officers that he had gotten a DWI in Vermillion about a month ago and was now getting an underage ticket. He was cited.
 • 1:11 a.m. — A dispute between a man and woman downtown was seen on the DCI Cameras installed for the D-Days Weekend. The couple was contacted and were arguing as a result of poor communication and alcohol consumption. No crime was witnessed or claimed by either party.
 • 1:15 a.m. — Officers on foot patrol saw a man pouring a beer into a glass while standing on the sidewalk. The man was contacted and was underage. He was cited.
 • 1:22 a.m. — A bar employee called to report an underage person drinking in the bar after providing a fake id. Officers responded and contacted the woman who admitted to the violations. She was cited.
 • 1:25 a.m. — Officers broke up a fight in progress. One of the subjects refused to identify himself or otherwise cooperate with the investigation and was arrested.
 • 1:43 a.m. — Officers were flagged down by a small group of men caring for one of their number who had been injured. An ambulance was called for the injured man who was reportedly assaulted by an unknown man who had first threatened the group with a "tazer" and then assaulted the victim. DCI agents in the area located the other group with the described suspect. They were able to stop and detain three of the men but several ran off. All were from Sioux Falls and had come down for D-Days. The described suspect was positively identified and had the tazer in his possession. He was charged with Aggravated Assault, Under age consumption of alcohol, and he was on probation.
 • 5:23 a.m. — Officers were called to the hospital after three people came in with stab wounds. Investigation revealed two women had gotten into a fight and one had started stabbing the other. Two men were at the residences and tried to intervene and also received stab wounds. The woman with the knife was arrested for Aggravated Assault.
 • 6:34 a.m. — A local church reported person(s) unknown threw a rock through a window and had entered the church. Officers collected several possible evidence items. Under investigation.
 • 9:11 a.m. — Caller reported person(s) unknown removed election signs from several residences during the night.
 • 10:53 a.m. — An officer saw two men attempting to subdue another using zip ties, and contacted the group. It turned out to be a consensual Fraternity event.
 • 6:05 p.m. — Officers found a vehicle that was reportedly involved in a hit-and-run vehicle. The driver was intoxicated and was arrested. This was his third DWI.
Tuesday, Oct. 14
 • 6:20 p.m. — Caller reported receiving threatening text messages from another woman. Officer investigated and the text messages were not criminal. There were allegations of damaged vehicles but while both parties believed the other one had damaged each of their vehicles, no evidence was available to prove either allegation.
 • 8:06 p.m. — Caller reported her adult daughter had called her and reported an argument with a boyfriend. Officers responded to check on the daughter but found no sign of violence or criminal activity.
Thursday, Oct. 16

substantiate any charges.
 • 5:07 p.m. — Caller reported a man was outside his residence threatening to assault him. Officers found the man described in the area when they arrived. The man was very intoxicated and admitted he had been outside the residence in question trying to fight with the caller. The suspect was on probation with a no alcohol condition and the Court Services Officer requested he be arrested. He resisted arrest and kicked one of the arresting officers and was charged with additional charges.
Friday, Oct. 17
 • 5:32 p.m. — FRAUD ALERT: Complainant received a phone call claiming to be the IRS and stating they owed back taxes and if they did not provide immediate payment over the phone the police would be called to take the complainant to jail for five years. This type of call is a fraud, the caller is not associated with the IRS in any way. This is not a method that the IRS or any government agency would use to collect owed money. If you have questions, contact the reported agency directly by calling published numbers. Be wary of anyone who calls you and requested money or personal information.
Saturday, Oct. 18
 • 12:50 p.m. — Officers responded to a noise complaint. When the resident answered the door, officer saw a smoky haze and smelled burnt marijuana. Officers began the process of applying for a search warrant when the resident turned over marijuana and a pipe used to smoke the marijuana. The resident was arrested for possession of marijuana and ingestion.
 • 8:08 p.m. — A caller on 911 reported a man had just forced his way into a residence with a baseball bat. Officers responded and found a man with a baseball bat pinning two men up against a wall. Officers took control of the situation and investigated. The man with the bat was arrested for aggravated assault and unlawful entry.
Sunday, Oct. 12

Lane Kyte
 Lane John Charles Kyte, 31, of Elk Point, South Dakota, passed away suddenly on Friday, October 17, 2014, at his home in Elk Point.
 A visitation will be held from 6:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, October 22, 2014, the Kober Funeral Home of Elk Point.
 A funeral service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, October 23, 2014, at the Kober Funeral Home of Elk Point with Rev. Elmer "Sandy" Aakre officiating.
 Burial will take place immediately following the service at the Elk Point Cemetery.
 Lane was born on July 29, 1983, in Vermillion, South Dakota, to John Charles and Ruth Ann (Halverson) Kyte.
 Lane was sometimes known as "Chuck" or "Laney", though his best nickname was "Lane John Charles Kyte Bubba Kyte Jr." Lane was a lifelong resident of Elk Point who seemed to still be trying to figure out his exact path in the world. He always enjoyed watching football and wrestling, though more recently he had become very interested in comics and superheroes, of which Superman seemed to be his favorite. He had also recently become a new participant in the Care Club in Yankton. Music, though, seemed to be what sustained him through, seeing that Lane was always listening to the radio or his CDs. He found great comfort and release through his music.
 Lane is survived by his father, John C. Kyte of Elk Point; his siblings, Craig (Vicky) Halverson of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Heather Campbell of Vermillion, and Brandis Bennett of Elk Point; his sister-in-law, Becky Trudell; his nieces, Samantha Halverson, Kelsey Campbell, Maria Bennett, and Morgan Bennett; his nephews, Daniel Halverson, Christopher Weber, Samuel Kyte, and Noah Bennett-Trudell; and his grandmother, Lola Halverson of Vermillion.
 Lane was preceded in death by his mother, Ruth Ann Kyte; his sister, Cally

KYTE

Jo Kyte; his maternal grandfather, Walter Halverson; and his paternal grandparents, Ralph and Betty Kyte.
 The Kober Funeral Home of Elk Point has been entrusted with the services.

 Jack married Phyllis Hauptman on December 28, 1947 in Denver CO; he was a Professor of Music at the University of South Dakota for 44 years and the Minister of Music at the Vermillion United Church of Christ for 60 years. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, Rotary Club, the American Guild of Organists, the Shrine of Music and the United Church of Christ. He was also Professor Emeritus at the University of SD and loved to travel.

NOBLE

 He was preceded in death by his parents, two sons: Bruce and Kris, a brother Robert and three sisters: Doris Davidson, Beatrice Malchow and Corrine Noble.
 He is survived by his wife Phyllis of Vermillion, two sons: David (Christine Mason) of Mead, CO and Paul (Melissa Hoffman-Noble) of Tulsa, OK, two daughters: Jane (Bryan) Paxon of Beaverton, OR and Ruth (Jerry) Lemire of Minneapolis, MN. He is also survived by four grandchildren: Carol Mollet, Sarah Williams, Eric Noble and Laura Noble, a sister in law Eleanor Noble of Laramie, WY, two cousins: Nancy Hand and Eleanor Flanders and many nieces and nephews.
 Memorial services will be at a later date, his body is being donated to the Sanford USD School of Medicine.
