7:51 p.m. – Caller reported her daughter was in a domestic dispute with a boyfriend. Officers responded and investigated. The daughter and boyfriend had argued and the boyfriend had assaulted the daughter. The boyfriend was arrested for domestic assault. He was also arrested on an outstanding Clay County warrant for domestic assault and intentional damage to property.
8:22 p.m. – An officer saw a vehicle speeding - 69mph in a 35mph zone. When he attempted to stop the vehicle, it accelerated and drove through stop signs without stopping. The vehicle was eventually stopped, and the driver was intoxicated, had a suspended driver's license and did not have insurance. The driver was arrested on multiple charges.
11:21 p.m. – Caller reported a group of men had set off the car alarm on her truck while walking by the home. Officers responded and followed several leads but were not able to locate the men involved.

OBITUARIES

FRANKLYN

'BESSIE' BELL
Franklyn Bessie Bell, 81, of Hill City, Edgemont and Vermillion SD died Tuesday October 28th at the Wakonda Heritage Manor/Avera in Wakonda SD.
Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Monday, Nov. 3 at the Hansen Funeral Home 1120 E Main Street Vermillion. Burial will follow at the Bluff View Cemetery in Vermillion.
Franklyn "Bessie" Block was born June 23, 1933 in McIntosh S.D. to Ernest and Francis Block as their first of nine children.
Bessie recalled helping her mother take care of the 8 following children at the farm, the farm chores, riding horse and the like as was common to farm living at the time. She recalled liking to play basketball, and by her telling, she was good.
But her likes soon changed at the age of 15 when she met John Bell. She married John when 16 years old on Sept. 24, 1949 in Morrissetown. They lived in McIntosh where John farmed and also worked as an implement dealer mechanic. During that time she recalled with joy the times when she would pack a picnic lunch and fly with John in a small plane directly to fields to repair combines. Jeraldine, their first child was born while they lived there. They later moved to Vermillion where John had family and work. Their children Steve and Cathy were born there. Bessie worked for some time at USD.

In the late 70s they moved to Hill City and built a modest home, where they enjoyed fishing, hills living and socializing. She helped to establish the "Black Hills Good Time German Club", serving as president of the club for several years. John and Bessie had good times with the polka music, German foods and of course... beer. Working in several Hill City businesses, she became well known and well liked.
Heavy snow coupled with age had John and Bessie move to warmer Edgemont in 2006.
Survivors are daughter Jerri Balke, special friend Dave Walsh of South Sioux City, Neb., daughter Cathy of Edgemont, son Steve and Nancy Bell of Vermillion, half brother Gene and Barbara Hoag of Vermillion, half sister Helen and Ernie Metz of Yankton, also four grandchildren: Brenda and Barth Gawlikowski, Brian Balke, Laura and Vaughn Temple, Joshua Bell, and great grandchildren: Ava Gawlikowski and Kaya Temple. Also her brothers Nick (Della) Block, Jack (Linda) Block, her sisters Peggy (Block) Koch, Patsy (Block) Mollman, Georgia (Block) Dick Makens, and Inez (Block) Locken.
She was preceded in death by her husband John Bell, parents Ernest and Francis Block, mother and father in law Glen and Katie Hoag, brothers Smokey and Buddy Block and brother in law Wayne Mollman.

DOROTHY GOLDEN

Dorothy C. (Myron) Golden, 97, died peacefully on Thursday, October 23, 2014 at the Good Samaritan Center in Canton. A service celebrating her life will be at 1 p.m. Tuesday, November 4, at First Lutheran Church following the private service of burial for immediate family. Visitation will be on Monday, November 3, from 4:30-6:30 pm at Miller Funeral Home downtown.

Golden

Dorothy Catherine Myron, daughter of Elling and Anna (Larson) Myron, was born on July 4, 1917 in Vermillion, SD. As an only child until she was nine years old, Dorothy quickly learned how to keep busy playing the piano, sewing clothes for herself and her dolls, and taking care of animals on the farm. She was especially fond of cats. After graduating from Vermillion High School in 1936, Dorothy continued her education, earning her teaching degree from the University of South Dakota and later her masters degree of education from Augustana College when she was 61 years old.

On December 31, 1941 Dorothy was united in marriage with Robert Stephen Golden in Hempstead, NY before he headed off to war on the ship Queen Mary. Dorothy continued to teach in country schools and was hired as a housekeeper in New York during the summer months. After Bob returned home from the war, they settled in Sioux Falls where Dorothy taught typing and shorthand at Nettleton Business College. After several years, Dorothy began teaching in the elementary schools in Sioux Falls.
A longtime member of First Lutheran Church, Dorothy sang in the adult choir, was a member of the Dorcas Circle, and played piano for the Sunday School Department. Dorothy was a supportive wife and a caring mother to her three daughters. She also was a member of Chapter BS in P.E.O. and enjoyed traveling, playing bridge and attending South Dakota Symphony concerts.
Grateful for sharing her life are her three daughters, Dorothy (Kirke) Wheeler, Ruth (Matthew) Bersagel, and Roberta (Gary) Famestad; and five grandchildren: Tom, Annie, Paul, Jeff, and Grace; and brother Donald and his wife Joyce of Houston, TX.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her husband Bob; parents; and an infant brother, Elling. In lieu of flowers memorials may be directed to the music and worship ministry of First Lutheran Church or the USD School of Education. www.millerfh.com

DIONNE KACZINSKI

CLINTON, Iowa — Dionne P. Kaczinski, age 77, of Clinton, IA, passed away Thursday, Oct. 16, 2014, at the Alverno Health Care Facility. Memorials may be given to the Alverno or First United Methodist Church. Online condolences may be left at www.papefh.com.
Dionne was born on May 15, 1937, in Sioux City, Iowa, the daughter of Ross and Lucille (Ashcraft) Sampson. She graduated from Central High School in Sioux City. She married Eugene Kaczinski on Sept. 21, 1957, in Sioux City, IA; he died in 1996. She worked as a legal secretary at the Hutchinson-Hurst-

Kaczinski

Duggan Law Firm in Sioux City, IA and the Paul Pfeiffer Law Firm in Clinton. She was a member of First United Methodist Church, Clinton, the Riverboat Rustlers Square Dance Club in Eldridge, IA, and volunteered at Mercy Medical Center in the gift shop. She enjoyed crocheting, cross stitch, card making and crafts. She loved pansies and hummingbirds.

Dionne is survived by her three sons: Joel (Cynthia) Kaczinski of Clinton, Jeffrey (Kayne) Kaczinski of Davenport, IA, and Jason (Molly) Kaczinski of Clinton; six grandchildren, Jacob, Caleb, Rachel, Megan, Sophia and Max; her fiancée, Duane Geronzin of Clinton; and a sister, Marlyn (Annar) Pettersen of Vermillion, SD. She was preceded in death by her parents, husbands, and her grandmothers, Phrilda Ashcraft, who had raised her as a child, and Emma Sampson. The family would like to thank Prairie Hills and the Alverno Health Care Facility for their kindness and support in caring for our mother.
