

Krystil Smit Named Executive Director Of South Dakota Farm Bureau

Huron, S.D. (September 30, 2015) - South Dakota's largest agriculture association will have a new face at its helm, as Krystil Smit takes the title of Executive Director for the South Dakota Farm Bureau (SDFB).
 "We are extremely excited to welcome Krystil Smit to the South Dakota Farm Bureau team," stated Scott VanderWal, SDFB President and farmer from Volga, S.D. "She brings a wealth of experience, many talents, and the personality to work successfully with a wide variety of different people and stakeholders. Krystil also has the vision and foresight to look at the big picture and see what's coming next. I'm confident she will help position South Dakota Farm Bureau to be influential and relevant for many, many years to come."

 "South Dakota Farm Bureau has long held a reputation of being a leading agricultural organization in the state, and I could not be more honored to join in that legacy as the new executive director," Smit commented. "I look forward to building on past successes while joining with the farmers and ranchers of South Dakota to protect and move agriculture forward."
 Smit is a 20-year veteran of agricultural communications. She graduated from South Dakota State University in 1995 with degrees in Ag Journalism and Animal Science, then went to work as editor of the Tri-State Neighbor. In 2004, Smit joined the South Dakota Corn Growers Association / South Dakota Corn Utilization Council as communications director. For the past five years, Smit has worked with Paulsen Marketing in Sioux Falls as public relations director, envisioning and executing strategic projects for leading ag and industry clients.

 Smit was born and raised on a farm near Davis, S.D. Today, she and husband, Phil, live near Davis and operate a diversified crop and livestock farm along with their three children:

MiKayla (17), Kaleb (14) and Mariah (11). The Smits are a 4-H family. In addition to work, farm and family activities, Krystil serves on the board of directors for the Sioux Empire Fair, the Sioux Falls Stockyards Plaza, and the Sioux Empire Staters, an SDSU alumni group.
 South Dakota Farm Bureau is the state's largest general agriculture association, recently setting a new all-time membership record with 16,000 farm, ranch and rural families on its roster. SDFB members will gather in Pierre on Nov. 20-21 for the organization's 98th annual meeting, including the annual grassroots policy-making session that is its highlight.

 "There is no better industry to be involved with than agriculture, and I am dedicated to making South Dakota Farm Bureau the best it can be so our state's progressive farm and ranch families can be supported, represented and empowered for the brightest possible future," Smit added.
 Smit takes the leadership reins from Wayne Smith, who retired as SDFB Executive Director this past June. Smit's duties will begin on Oct. 12.

Business Reminder: Deadline To Report Unclaimed Property Is Nov. 2nd

State Treasurer Rich Sattgast reminds all businesses to review their records and report any funds, securities or other property that have gone unclaimed to the Office of the State Treasurer by Monday, November 2, 2015.
 South Dakota State Law (SDCL 43-41B) requires that businesses, otherwise known as holders, report property which is presumed to be "abandoned" or "unclaimed" to the state treasurer after the appropriate dormancy period.
 "Banking and financial organizations, business associations, utility companies and legal entities are all required by law to report unclaimed property to the state," said Sattgast. "It's important that businesses are informed of their unclaimed property reporting and escheatment obligations."
 Unclaimed property is lost financial assets such as uncashed payroll checks, inactive savings accounts, utility deposits, uncashed stock and mutual fund dividends, stock certificates, overpayments, credit balances, refunds, gift certificates and uncashed insurance payments.
 "Businesses are required to report unclaimed property down to the penny. Both the Treasurer's office and the businesses reporting unclaimed property want to ensure every cent is returned to the rightful owners," Sattgast said. "It really is a positive program for everyone involved."
 For more information on reporting unclaimed property in South Dakota, visit www.sdtreasurer.gov.
 To talk to an unclaimed property representative about the reporting process, call 605-773-3379 or email holders@sdtreasurer.gov.

Ladies Morning Golf

This is a sad reporting today, 09/30/15. Our group had it's final gathering at the Bluffs. Dominoes does continue at noon on Wednesdays at the Roadhouse.
 Have lunch and fun with fellow dominoes players. I bet you could even just come to watch!
 There were 13 beautiful ladies at luncheon. The treats were a very special item—cupcakes. Not ordinary cupcakes but they had grass, golf ball, and a flag on them!!
 Such a great touch!
 Thanks to Mona at Mona's Cakes for the idea. Of course I had to have a chocolate.
 Our money winners today—$5 drawings: Jan Chapman and Pat Durkin.
 Quarters: Darlene Engbrecht, Pat Durkin, Jan Chapman and Beth Silvano.
 Dominoes had 2 tables of competitive but fun loving ladies.
 Rd 1-Vaneta Youngworth and Maxine Rogers.
 Rd 2-Pat Durkin and Barb Boone.

Rd 3-Dori Ryan and Maxine Rogers.
 Total score- Gwen Orr and Darlene Engbrecht.
 As I said before...the fun continues at the Roadhouse.
 Golf-There were 6 golfers so we played 3 person scramble. This is a very fun game and teamwork!
 Edith Nelson, Mary Lea Hennies, and myself (Pat Steckelberg) had a score of 38.
 Mary Moch, Mona Bye, and Ann Stewart had a final score of 42.
 The morning started out coool but by the end of the game was not bad at all.
 We shall return the first Wednesday in May 2016. Hope to see more fun loving ladies.
 Catch you all during the off season (probably at the grocery store!).
 Thanks to Cherry Street (Alex) for catering our luncheon.
Pat Steckelberg, Reporting
