Douglas Ganschow

Douglas Lloyd Ganschow, 60, earned his wings on Sunday, October 11, 2015, at Avera Sacred Heart Hospital, Yankton after a short battle with sarcomatoid renal cell carcinoma.

Funeral services were held Thursday, October 15th at 10:00am, at St. Patrick's Catholic Church, burial followed in Union Cemetery rural Wakonda.

Ganschow Visitation was held Wednesday,

October 14th from 4:00-7:00pm at the St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Wakonda followed by a prayer service at 7:00pm.

Doug was born November 14, 1954 in Chelsea, Massachusetts to Robert and JoAnn Ganschow. At six months of age, his family moved to Wakonda, SD where he grew up, raised his own family, and created lasting friendships with everyone he met. He graduated from Wakonda High School in 1973 and married his high school sweetheart, Pam Anderson, in 1974. To this union, Doug and Pam added a daughter Staci and a son Robert.

Doug's true passion was farming and raising a cow/calf herd with his father, brothers, son, and son-in-law. He also completed 25 years of service at the University of South Dakota where he served in many departments and finished his career as a structural supervisor.

Doug was hardworking, generous, and devoted to his family, friends, and community.

In his free time, Doug enjoyed playing men's fast-pitch and slowpitch softball, bowling, coaching girls softball, golfing, fishing, hunting, playing pinochle and cribbage, and attending as many of his grandchildren's events as possible.

Survivors include his wife Pam of Wakonda; his mother JoAnn of Wakonda; his daughter Staci (Daniel) Larson of Volin; his son Robert of Wakonda; four grandchildren Abby, Molly, Keeley, and Nathan Larson of Volin; three brothers Dennis (Kathy) of Wakonda, Darby (Cathy) of Wakonda, and David (Brenda) of Wakonda; a sister-inlaw Janet (David) Nelson of Irene; two brother-in-laws Stuart (Samantha) Anderson of Yankton and Craig (Ámy) Anderson of Yankton; twelve nieces and nephews; and more friends than we can ever count.

Doug was preceded in death by his father Robert Ganschow, Klamm, and Andrew Ganschow. Honorary pallbearers are all friends and family who hold Doug so dear to their hearts. For obituary and online condolences visit hansenfuneralhome. com.

David Nieman

David Leroy Nieman, 60, of Burbank, South Dakota, passed away suddenly on Monday, October 12, 2015 at his residence.

A visitation was held from 6:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m., on Wednesday, October 14, 2015 at Kober Funeral Home of Vermillion with a prayer service at 7:00 P.M. A Funeral Service was held at 10:30 a.m., Thursday, October 15, 2015, at Concordia Lutheran Church in Vermillion with Rev. Garen Pey officiating.

Burial will take place at the Memorial Park Cemetery in Sioux City, Iowa at a later date.

David was born on May 15, 1955 in Pender, Nebraska, the son of Marvin and Elizabeth "Mae" (Garrett) Nieman. He was baptized at infancy and grew up as a member of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod. He spent part of his childhood in Boise ID, where he enjoyed the mountains and Boy Scouts. Later his family returned to Nebraska where he was a member of the Walthill Saddle Club and graduated from Winnebago High School in 1974.

He enlisted in the US. Air Force during Vietnam era on 1/10/75with the 28th Field Maintenance Squadron as an Aircraft Mechanic and was discharged with honors.

He married the love of his life, Wanda Davis at the United Methodist Church on April 24, 1976. To this union, three children were born; Matt, Chrissy, and Becky. They made their home in Burbank for eight years until his passing.

David Nieman took on many jobs though out his life; machinist, welder, mechanic, plumber, carpenter and the list goes on. Most of those that have spent time around him have learned a lot in these fields from him over the years. He always had a way of teaching something to everyone when they were together.

He liked to go fishing. (He would take his kids for all night fishing trips). He loved being outdoors and camping with his family and friends. He especially had a passion for his cars, esp. his '70 Challenger, '78 Silverado. He loved his family dearly and always had a special place in his heart for all the dogs he had throughout his life. He will be dearly missed by many who knew and loved him.

He is survived by his loving wife of 39 years, Wanda of Burbank; his loving children, Matt Nieman of Sioux City, Iowa, Chrissy (Dave) Campbell of Vermillion, and Becky (Nate) Dow of Brandon, South Dakota; his 9 grandchildren; two brothers, Joe (Su) Nieman of Colorado Springs, Colorado, and Jerry (Linda) Nieman of Peyton, Colorado, one sister Darla (Lenny) Baier of Rosalie Nebraska; and one sister-in-law, Grace Buckley of Brush, Colorado.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Marvin & Mae Nieman

The Kober Funeral Home of Vermillion has been entrusted with the services.
