

OBITUARIES

Eric Street, Jr

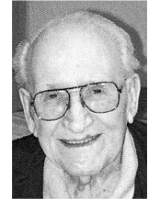

Eric D. Street, Jr, 87, of Meckling, South Dakota passed away on Thursday, October 22, 2015 at Prairie Estates Care & Rehab. Center in Elk Point.

Cremation has already taken place and there will be a memorial service at a later date.

Eric was born on July 25, 1928 in San Francisco, California to Eric Sr., and Edna (Casel) Street.

Eric grew up in California and graduated from high school in Santa Cruz, CA. While he was in CA, he enjoyed City League Basketball at the Civic Auditorium.

He enlisted in the U.S. Army and served his country from 1953 and was discharged in 1955 as a combat engineer.

Street

He married the love of his life, Adeline Sorensen on December 28, 1956. They were blessed with four children, Eric III, Amy, Sarah, and Neil.

He worked for the state of California Caltrans for 42 years before retiring in 1990.

After his retirement, they moved to South Dakota and made their home in Meckling in 1992.

He is survived by his loving wife, Adeline; his children, Eric III (Sherry) Street of Aromas, CA, Amy Street of Meckling, SD, Sarah (Edwin) Monroe of Los Banos, and Neil (Sue) Street of Jan Juc, Australia; his five grandchildren, Brooke, Kelsie, Clarke Monroe, Darcy and Ben Street.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Eric Sr., and Edna Street; and his two brothers, Charles and Ernest Street.

The Kober Funeral Home of Vermillion has been entrusted with the services.

Condolences may be posted

Joshua Kimlicka

Joshua A. Kimlicka, 40 of Vermillion, SD formerly of Redfield, passed away of natural causes on October 18, 2015.

A Celebration of Life Service will be held on Monday, October 26, 2015 at 5:00 p.m. at Thelen Funeral Home in Redfield. Pastor Marty Toepke-Floyd officiated. (www.thelenfuneralhome.com)

Joshua Albert Kimlicka was born July 22, 1975 in Redfield, SD to Leon "Butch" and Cheryl (Pribble) Kimlicka. Throughout Josh's young life he enjoyed spending summers at the family cabin at Cottonwood Lake, hunting and fishing.

Kimlicka

After graduating from Redfield High School in 1994, Josh attended college at the University of South Dakota in Vermillion. He was a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity and was also a Stroller. Josh loved life in Vermillion and made his permanent residence there. He managed the Charcoal Lounge, which is owned by his friend Tom French. Josh was an avid hunter, he especially loved hunting waterfowl.

Grateful for having shared in his life are his parents: Butch and Cheryl Kimlicka of Redfield; his sister Marie Kimlicka (Kurt VanVleet) of Redfield and their children: Cody, Gabrielle, Emma, Kason and Wylie; his brother Jeremiah (Sara) Kimlicka of Redfield and their children: Cruz and Curry. Josh is also survived by his grandparents Marthann Kimlicka and Kenneth and Phyllis Pribble. Josh will also be missed by his life-long buddy Travis Thomas and his son Jacob.

Josh was preceded in death by his paternal grandfather, Leo "Bud" Kimlicka.

Roy Jennings

Roy Robert Jennings, 80, of Vermillion, SD passed away October 23, 2015 at the Sanford Vermillion Hospital.

Roy was born on January 2, 1935 in Beresford, SD to Francis and Wanda (Lipelt) Jennings. He graduated from Yankton High School in 1953. He enlisted in the United States Army and was honorably discharged in 1956. He attended South Dakota State College in Brookings and graduated in 1961 with a Bachelor of Science degree in pharmacy.

Survivors include his sisters, Rhoda Grant of Vermillion and Roberta Felice of Pueblo, CO and many nieces, nephews and friends.

No service will be held. HansenFuneralHome.com

2:07 p.m. - Officer provided a funeral escort.

5:53 p.m. - Caller reported her mother had taken three of her children and left earlier in the day. She did not know where they went and was worried. Officers located the mother and children in another city, all parties were well.

11:37 p.m. - Officers responded to a report of a man lying on the sidewalk outside a bar. The man was unresponsive and the ambulance was called. The man was very intoxicated and had difficulty communicating; officers provided care until the ambulance took over.

In this most difficult time of heartache and sadness, we will be forever grateful for the love and support we have received from everyone, as we mourn the loss of our son, grandson, nephew and cousin, Sam Garrity. Though our hearts are heavy with grief, we are truly blessed by the acts of kindness and comfort from family, friends, and everyone else who shared in Sam's life. Our thanks go out to all who sent flowers and cards, brought food and contributed memorials. To Opsahl-Kostel Funeral Home, we extend our deepest appreciation and to Sam's classmates from Sacred Heart School and the University of South Dakota School of Law, thank you, for your kind words and deeds. Father Larry and Father Jim, we cannot thank you enough for your spiritual guidance. Mike McDonald, your melodic voice expressed our Irish lament - thank you. Many thanks for the thoughtful and caring emails and texts and sharing memorable stories on Facebook. And finally, thank you to everyone who came to our home, the visitation and the funeral - your hugs, prayers and love have kept us going as we cherish our memories of Sam and remember how loved and special he was.

With sincerity,
Pat & Jan Garrity,
Phyllis Karolevitz, Jill (Karolevitz) & Pete Peterson,
