bids were received, the City may sell the property within 12 months at private sale for not less than 90% of the appraised value. Bismarck-Mandan Auto submitted a bid that was received after the bid opening time. In contacting them, they asked that their bid be considered as an offer to purchase the surplus vehicle. The offer was for $5,000 which was equal to the appraised value. Jose stated that the bid from Chicago Motors was not acceptable and, as no acceptable bids were received, the offer from Bismarck-Mandan Auto of $5,000 is equal to the appraised value and recommended acceptance.

Alderman Osborne moved to recognize that the bid from Chicago Motors was not acceptable due to inadequate bid security and bid less than 90% of appraised value and, as no bids were received, to accept the offer of $5,000 from Bismarck-Mandan Auto for the sale of the surplus 2009 Ford Crown Victorian. Alderman Ward seconded the motion. Motion carried 9 to 0. Mayor Powell declared the motion adopted.
