never seen done before," Lewis Frum, a substitute teacher, said. "Their creativity is pretty good." It was enough fun and frolic that even fellow students were impressed. "It's fun not being in class," sophomore Severn Ashes. "They put a lot of time into it and with it being Homecoming Week they have a lot of pride in it. I like that. "I am super proud of seeing girls stuff marshmallows in their faces." Senior Kourtney Seibel enjoy the process even if Noon Olympics' results are a foregone conclusion. "They make it interesting even though it is rigged for the seniors to win every year," she said. "It's expected (for seniors to win). The student council puts a lot of time into this and I don't know if I could do it. They make it fun for everybody." In the middle of all that came the most special night during the Homecoming process. The crowning of the King and Queen is what rings with pomp and circumstance. According to one parent sitting inside the high school auditorium, yes, the event is a big top event, but it is a 'celebration of youth and accomplishment.' It is a rite of passage synonymous with Vermillion High School simply put. Last Thursday night, the King and Queen –

Jonathan Manning and Hailey Freidel respectively – were presented in front of their peers as the two they voted to wear the crowns. It was something both were more than humbled by the recognition. "It feels amazing because I really didn't expect to get it," Freidel said. "They were an amazing group of girls that got up this year. I've been blessed with such an amazing high school experience. I am just glad that this is the cherry on top of the cake."

Manning too was happy with the selection. "It's exciting," Manning said. "It feels good." Freidel probably couldn't have had a better king to walk beside to the burning of the V. "John is a great guy and we couldn't pick anyone better to get it," she said.
